JULIE PATRICK

Julie,
 I'm really glad that we've got some classes together this year. We'll have lots of fun, especially in Journalism. I'll never forget the night of the prom last year! Good luck in everything you do, always
 Julie Borchardt

Julie,
 To the smartest
 girl I know. Notice
 I said girl, because I am the smartest
 boy P. Good luck
 this year and keep up the good work.

 worse.
 Julie Borchardt

Julie,
 I think your fantastic person. Remember your great slumber
 party + Peg O'C Keeling with pillows. We already had good times & will probably have a lot more.
 Be good
 Peg Spray
 Hope you get your house on

Julie,
Well, after all we've been through it's hard to believe that we made it to be seniors! Between those carnival men and Jeff' boys (after the movies) I don't know how we ever made it. Julie, I'm really glad that I've gotten to know you because you are truly one of the nicest and funnest and all-together greatest persons in the world! Good luck in everything you do and now have the best yr. ever!!

BETH

P.S. Don't show Mr. Lewis my awful grammar!

Julie,
To the No. 2 S.S.H.S. student at S.S.H.S. she deserves to be because she's never wrong. Hal! Hal! year thanks for the help my soph. year in Spanish when the only test you helped me on all year I flunked! Well, that was my fault I should have studied. Especially school. Good luck in everything. 4/75.

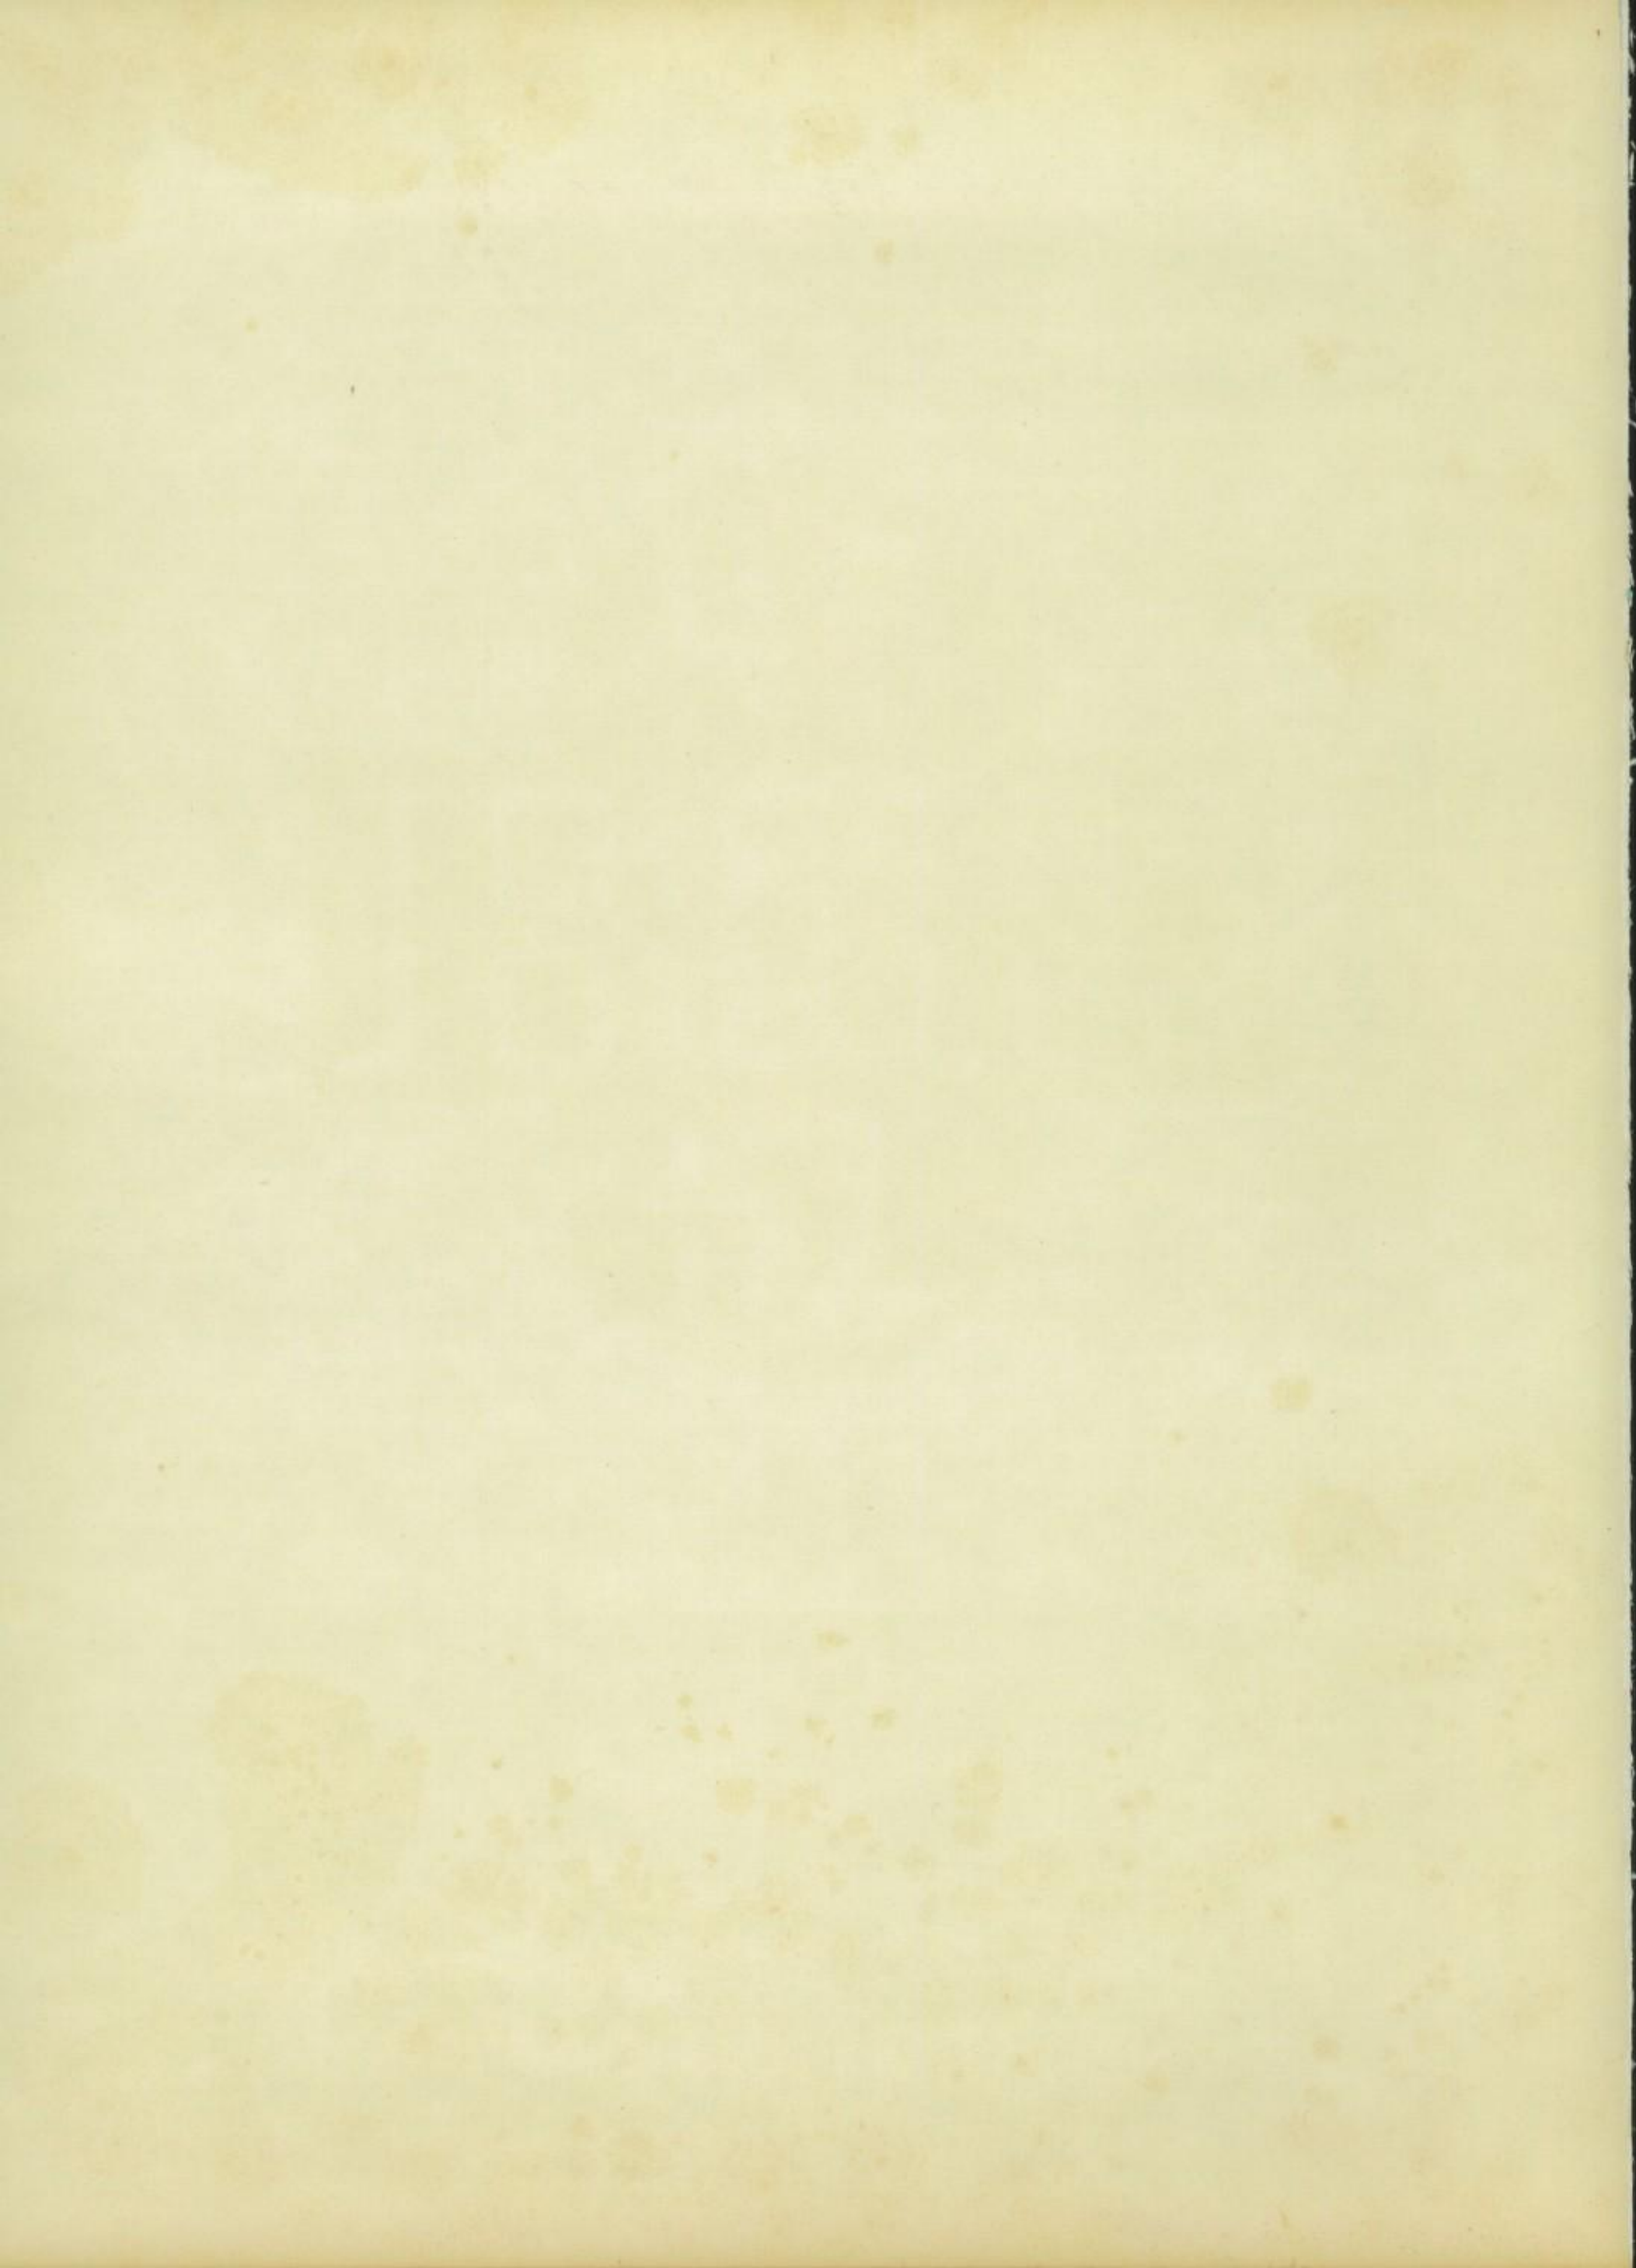

Julie,
Can you believe we're seniors? I hope we have a lot more fun this year. Good luck in everything you do. You'll go far. Janet Hall

we may never pass this way again . . .

*Life—so they say
Is but a game and they let it slip away
Love—like the autumn sun
Should be crying but it's only just begun
Like the twilight in the road up ahead
They don't see just where we're going
And all the secrets in the universe
Whisper in our ears and all the years will come and go
And take us up always up*

We may never pass this way again

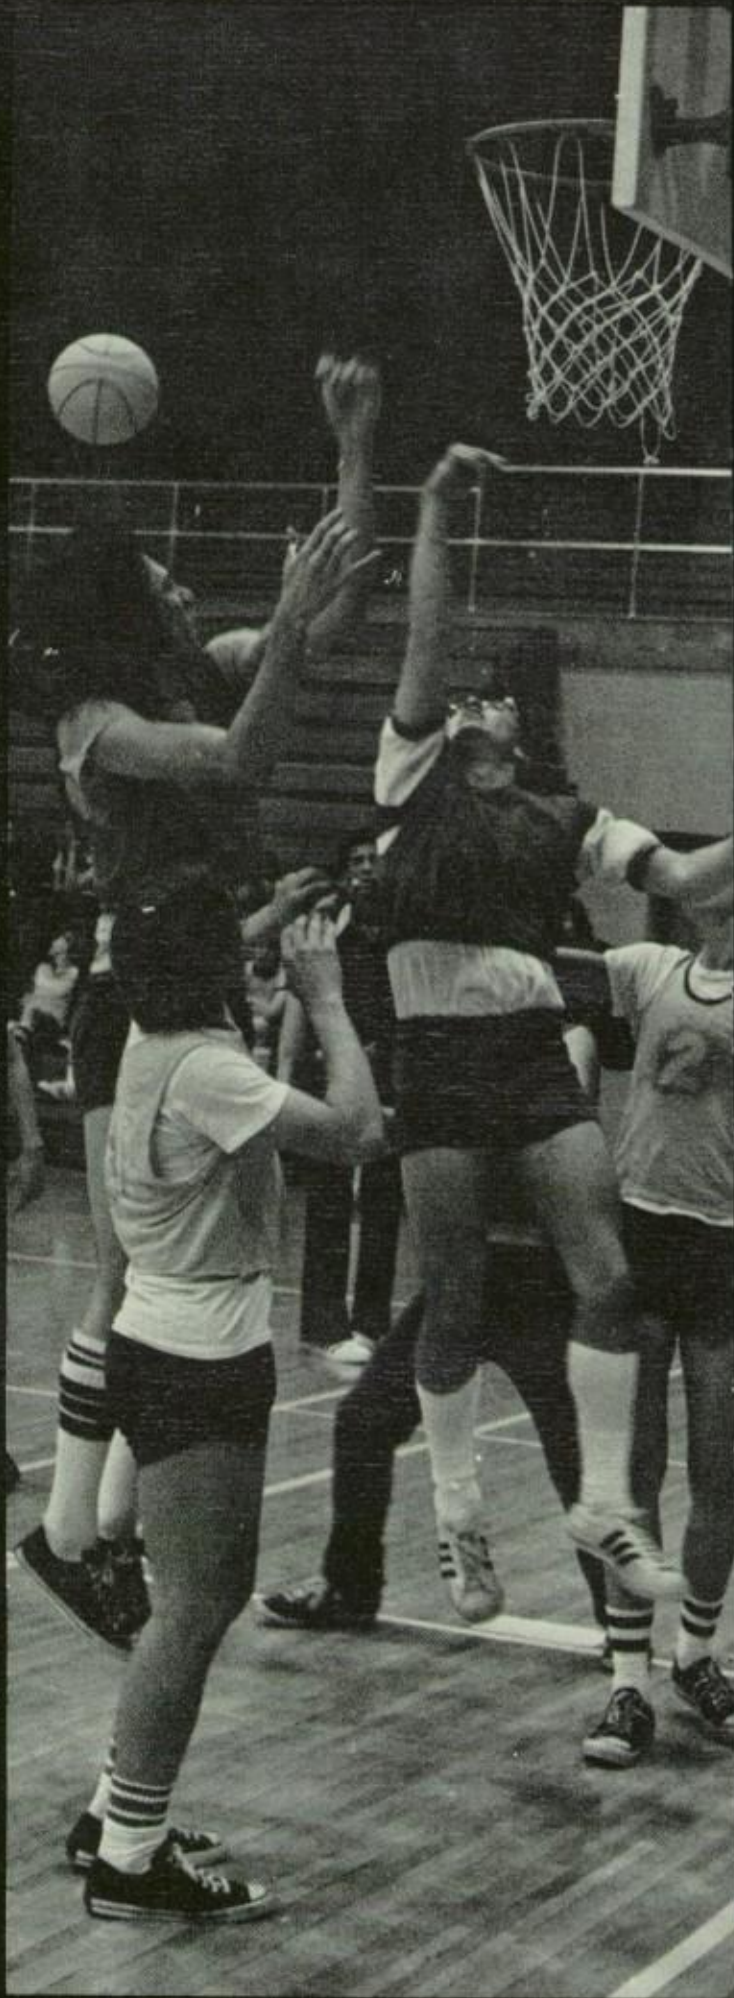

*Dreams—so they say
Are for the fools and they let them drift away
Peace—like the silent dove
Should be flyin' but it's only just begun
Like Columbus in the olden days
We must gather all our courage
Sail our ships out on the open sea
Cast away our fears and all the years will come and go
And take us up always up*

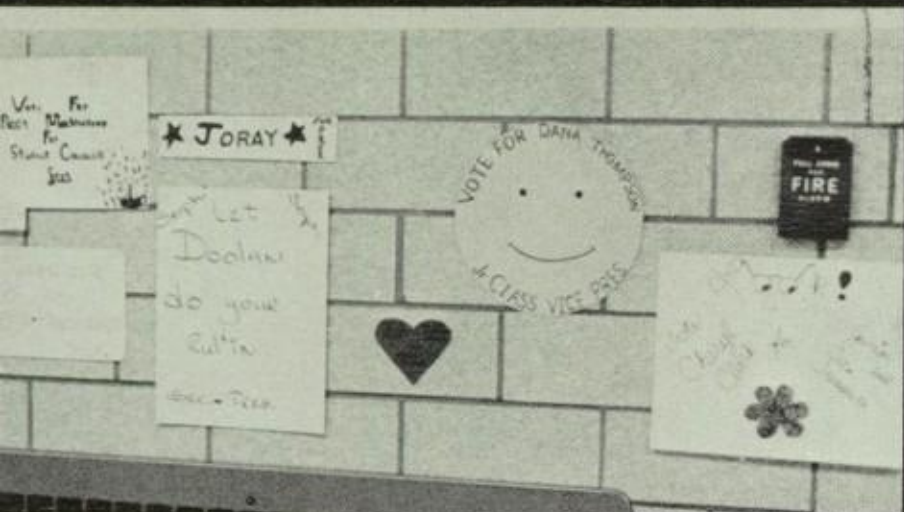

We may never pass this way again

*So I wanna laugh while the laughin' is easy
I wanna cry if it makes it worthwhile
I may never pass this way again
That's why I want it with you
'Cause you make me feel like I'm more than a friend
Like I'm the journey and you're the journey's end
I may never pass this way
That's why I want it with you baby.*

We may never pass this way again. . .

The Patriot Says
Thank-You to the Teachers Who Resigned
and Retired

Mr. Deputy, representing the faculty of SHS, presents Mrs. Houston with an ornate silver tray to commemorate her many years of service in the teaching profession.

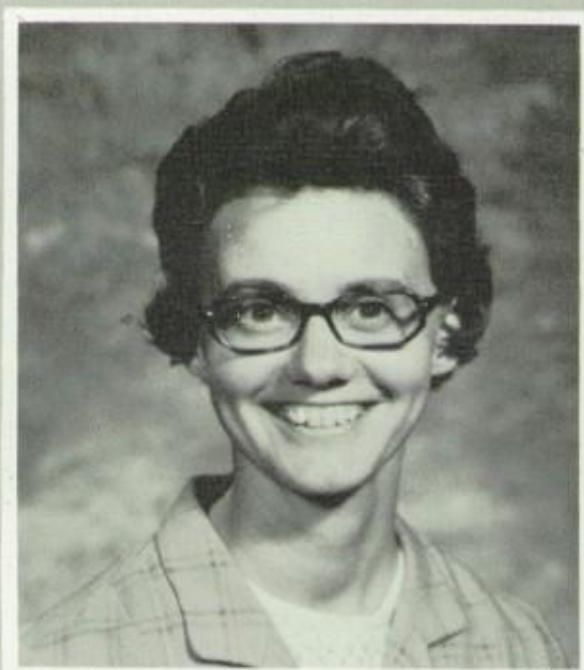

Mr. William Bailey

Mrs. Annette Houston

Mrs. Carol Appleby

Mrs. Janet Kastner

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS: Teresa Patman, secretary-treasurer; John Wiethoff, president; Martha Ashcraft, vice-president.

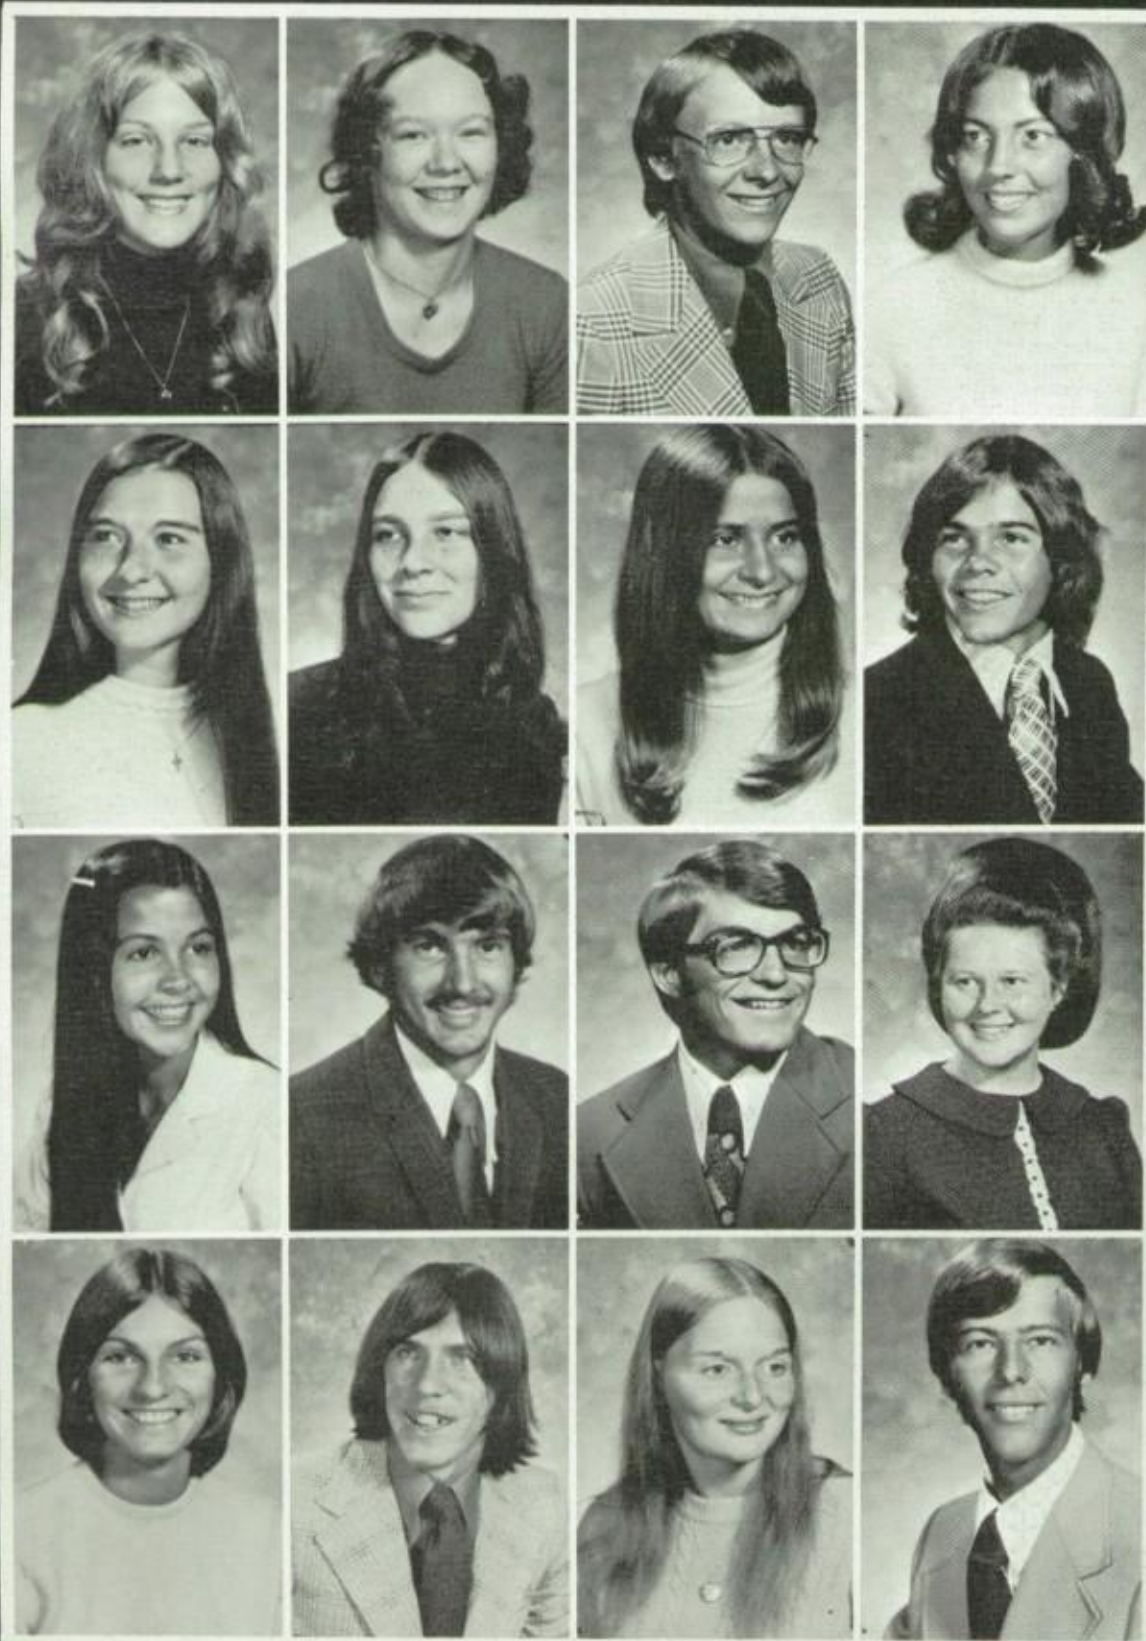

Class of 1974

In August of 1973, many seniors didn't even realize that this would be their last year of high school. They found that being a senior was quite different from being an underclassman. The four years of high school were filled with memories: being the first freshman class to attend SHS, ordering class keys and class rings, winning the Sectional spirit stick as juniors, presenting the Junior Class Play, serving on Prom committees, selling magazines, exchanging senior pictures, getting measured for caps and gowns, attending the Senior Dinner, serving on class committees, attending sports events, being in musicals or plays for the last time, receiving awards on Honor Day, all leading up to the final milestone itself: Commencealaureate.

A good philosophy for such a graduating senior could be: In all the disorder of life, keep peace with your soul and if possible be on good terms with everyone, and most important, be yourself, for you will never pass this way again . . .

In Memoriam

Life — so they say
Is but a game and they let it slip away
Love — like the Autumn sun
Should by dying but its only just begun
Like the twilight in the road up ahead
They don't see just where we're goin'
And all the secrets in the universe
Whisper in our ears
And all the years will come and go
And take us up, always up.
We may never pass this way again.

Class of 1975

1973-74 was definitely a busy year for the juniors. Their "junior" year really began late in the sophomore year when they all had to decide what classes they would take and if they wanted to attend college or not. The junior year went relatively smoothly until the rugged PSAT. After a period of rest came the junior class play, "The Death and Life of Sneaky Fitch." The money earned by the play was used by the juniors for the Prom; many juniors volunteered to help plan and decorate. Eventually, the big night came, and the juniors displayed with pride all of their hard work. The junior year ended with the juniors seeing the seniors off and dreaming of their "senior" year, and then realizing with some sadness that such a year as 1973-74 would never pass their way again . . .

JUNIOR CLASS SPONSORS: John Glezen, Arthur Jones, Judy Sutton, James Deputy, Charles Horton, Harman Thomas, Annette Houston, Janet Kastner, Norma McQuinn, and Avery Dittmer.

Class of 1976

In 1973-74, the Class of '76 had a somewhat different year than they had had the year before. Gone was that feeling of being lost all the time; instead, they now knew what was going on. In the autumn, the sophomores ordered their SHS class keys, and in March they finally received this precious symbol of their 10th-grade standing.

The sophomore year is also the year of the Kuder Preference Test: for two days in mid-winter the sophomores punched holes in little circles, drew charts, and colored in graphs. With the results of this test in their permanent records, by April the sophomores began to schedule their classes for their upcoming junior year.

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS: Bill Klaes, vice-president; Steve Zarick, president; Eileen Elsner, secretary-treasurer.

The Class of '77 quickly found out what it meant to be a freshman: one's first day of high school, losing one's way in identical-looking hallways, ending up in the wrong rooms, taking home the wrong books to study for tests. After the early confusion wore off, however, the freshmen rapidly became part of SHS school life. Sports, choir, band, plays, and student elections were just a few of the new experiences they encountered in their first year of high school — the stepping stone to the next three valuable years of their lives. Indeed, the Class of 1977 found that '73-'74 was an exciting and rewarding year, and, that even as freshmen, they would never pass this way again.

For the faculty, the year of 1973-74 was a year of change. To begin with, they began under a new administration, headed by Dr. Conrad Galloway. Then, the North Central Evaluation committee visited in mid-winter. Finally, among the shifts were the resignations of Mr. Bailey and Mrs. Appleby, who were replaced by Mrs. Moats and Miss Steckler, respectively.

Superintendent and School Board

Having been named as the new Superintendent of Schools in early May of 1973, Dr. Conrad Galloway took over his new duties as supervisor of the Seymour schools' system in July. He and the board — including newer members Oakley Allen and Richard Stuckwisch — met once a month to oversee all of the details connected with running a large schools system. Of primary concern in 1973-74 were the fuel shortage and the hiring of successors to Mr. Scott, Mr. Stickles, and Mr. Suminski, all retiring coaches.

The Administrative Personnel perform a variety of duties to serve SHS students. Mrs. Cobb, the new reading consultant, worked with students who had reading difficulties. Mrs. Lewis kept track of everyone's attendance record while Miss Smith kept an eye on our health. Miss Beard appeared at SHS to test students for speech and hearing defects. As Dr. Galloway's Administrative Assistant, Mr. Bell's primary concern was the purchase of equipment. Mr. Finley was responsible for buildings and school buses, while Mr. Seville helped to decide the school's curriculum.

Keeping SHS running smoothly for the entire year was the primary job of Mr. Lysko and Mr. Scott, Seymour High's principal and assistant principal. Although 1973-74 was the first year that Mr. Lysko was principal of Seymour High School, he was not a new face to SHS students, having been Dean of Boys and a social studies teacher here for a number of years. As principal, his responsibilities included arranging schedules, holding conferences with parents, selecting and supervising the faculty, and efficiently running the school. The main duties of Mr. Scott, one of SHS's assistant principals, were to assist Mr. Lysko in the above duties and to supervise the physical education, intramurals, and recreation programs and to be Director of the SHS Summer School program.

Mr. Warren Keyser, Guidance Director

Guidance Department

In '73-74, members of the SHS Guidance Department were kept busy. Mr. Keyser, the Guidance Director and Assistant Principal, worked with college-bound seniors and tackled the more severe disciplinary problems. Mr. Miller, the Vocational Guidance Counselor, handled job opportunities — both present and future — for SHSers. For the first semester, Mrs. Hawkins, the newest member of the Department, worked with sophomores in planning courses beneficial to the tenth-graders and their future.

Deans

Two very important people in the Guidance Department are Mr. John Britton, Dean of Boys, and Mrs. Jessie Ruth Lewis, Dean of Girls. Besides helping to check attendance and handling most disciplinary problems, they are counselors for both the eleventh and twelfth grades.

Each day, other "non-faculty" personnel served SHS invaluable in a variety of ways. Mrs. Joan Heavin served as secretary to the Deans and handled all attendance records. Mrs. Betty Skelton, the school's librarian, was always ready to help a student along with her regular duties. Mrs. Lucille Williams was the school treasurer; most students came into contact with her every time they visited the bookstore. Mrs. Linda Marsh was the brand-new secretary to the principal, but she too was always ready to lend a helping hand to any visitors to the main office. As she's done the past two years, Mrs. Sue Blythe divided her day by serving as secretary to both Mr. Scott and Mr. Miller.

Each school day, approximately a dozen women arrived early to begin to prepare the cafeteria's meals for the nearly 850 SHS students who ate at school daily. The 1973-74 school year brought some problems to Mrs. Holstine — the new school dietitian — and SHS's cooks as fewer and fewer government-subsidized foods were offered to schools at low prices. The dietitian and the cooks worked many hours preparing nutritious meals using the fewer government-supported items. The problem, of course, was keeping the school lunches at a reasonable price even though the government was offering schools fewer foods at low prices. On the brighter side, a new feature in the cafeteria was the milk-shake mixer, thanks to which many students enjoyed vanilla, strawberry, or chocolate milk-shakes with their meals.

pass this way again, every year there is a new freshman class to fill the void caused by the most recent class of graduating seniors; the custodians are here to maintain our facilities during this never-ending flow of people.

Summer Workshops Polish Skills for Coming School Year

SHS band students Chris Klaes and Jerry Kuehn attended Smith-Walbridge Drum Major Camp.

Reserve Cheerleaders Rexanne Earley, Cathy Bode, Susan Lawrence, Karen Pardieck, and Cindy Johnson spent a week at Vincennes University's Cheerleading Workshop.

Every summer, students from Seymour High School attend workshops in Indiana to better prepare themselves for activities held during the school year. From music and band workshops to cheerleading and majorette camps, students combine summer fun and hard work to improve Seymour High School's standard of excellence. Delegates to Boys' State and Girls' State had a good opportunity to experience the workings of our governmental system. Because of the experience gained in these workshops, these students can bring a new polish to the activities that they excel in.

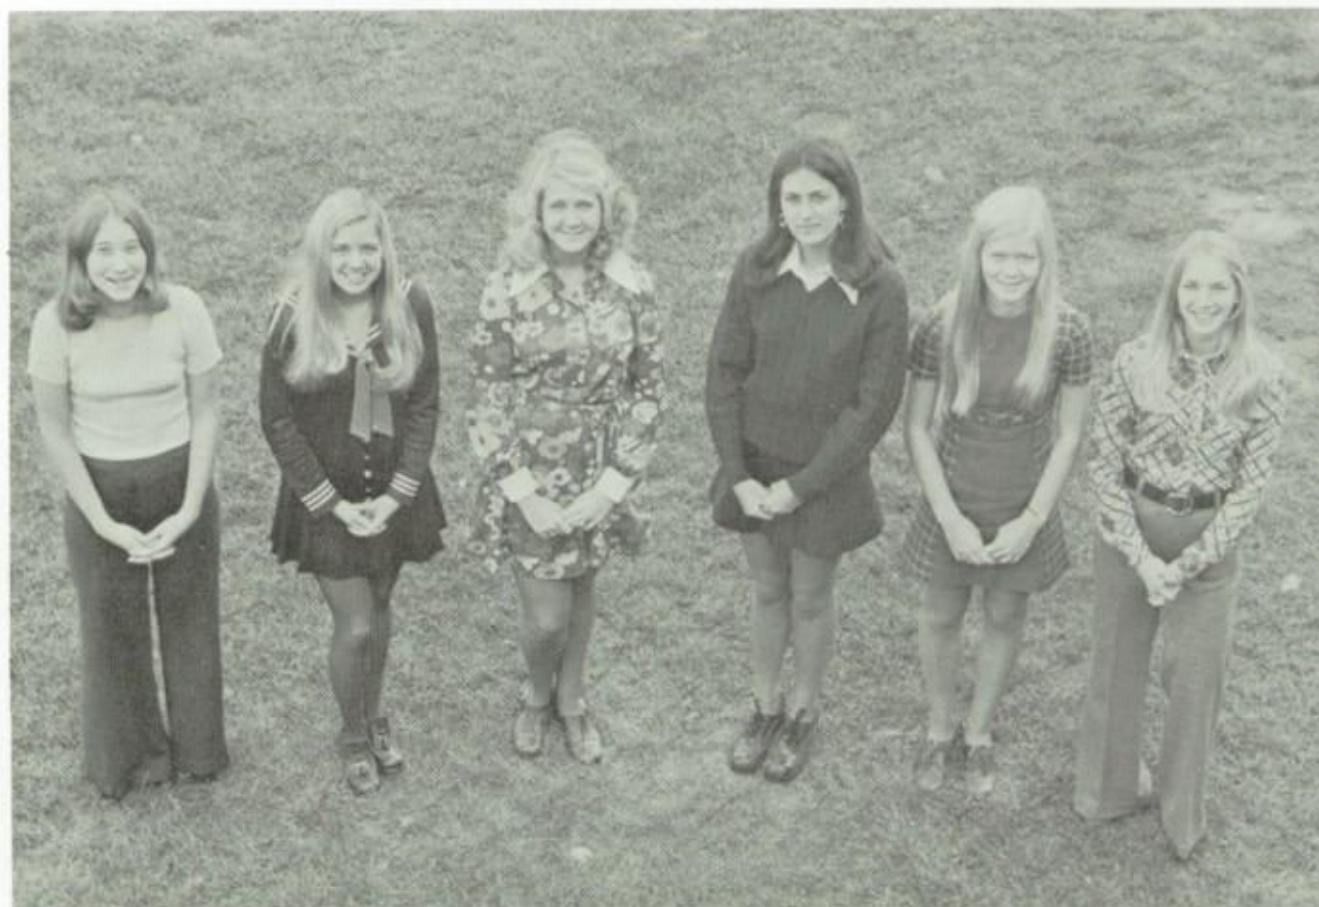

Varsity Cheerleaders Kim Graessle, Debbie Henkle, Martha Ashcraft, Beth Bowman, and Jill Robertson attended a Cheerleading Workshop at Vincennes University also.

SHS Students Win Many Honors During the School Year

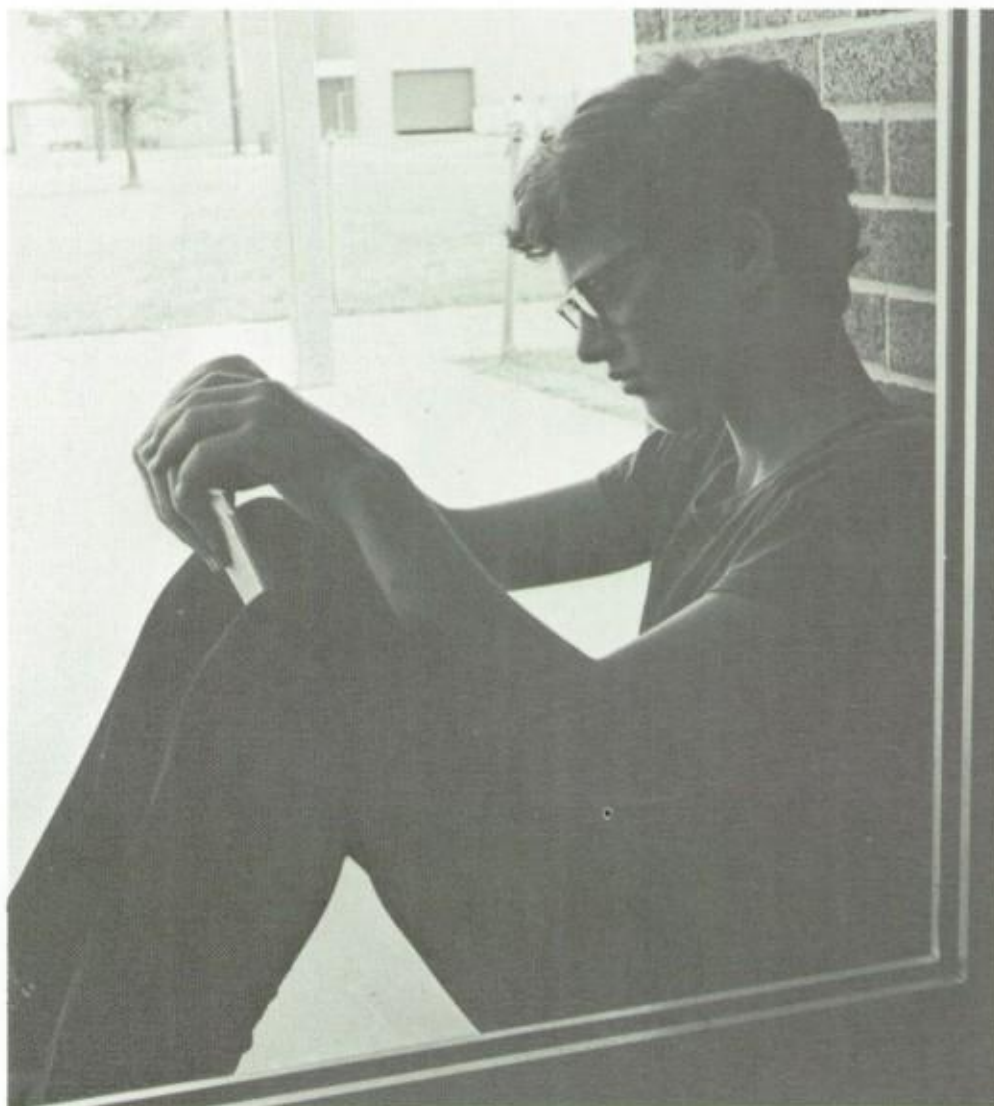

Each school year, many students bring honor to themselves and their school due to the achievements they've accomplished. For some, rigorous tests are taken in competition with other students — from SHS and from all over the state. Others gain honor and awards from year-long excellence exhibited in many fields: from auto mechanics to public speaking.

Summer School Is Largest Ever

The summer of 1973 was a studious one for SHS students as Seymour High School had its largest summer school enrollment in the school's history. Nearly 700 students enrolled, attempting over 920 credits. The new enrollment record was due primarily to the lack of summer job openings and the lure of hopeful future mid-year graduates. Eight different subjects were offered, with Driver's Education being the most popular. Summer highlights included the Biology classes' trip to the Louisville Zoo and Mr. Alexander's Economics class's field-trips to some local factories and restaurants.

ABOVE and BELOW: Since summer fun absorbs most of these students' time, studying is done speedily before class ... or not at all.

Hands raised for answers to questions or for questions that needed answers kept Mr. Jones's U.S. History class humming with plenty of student-teacher activity.

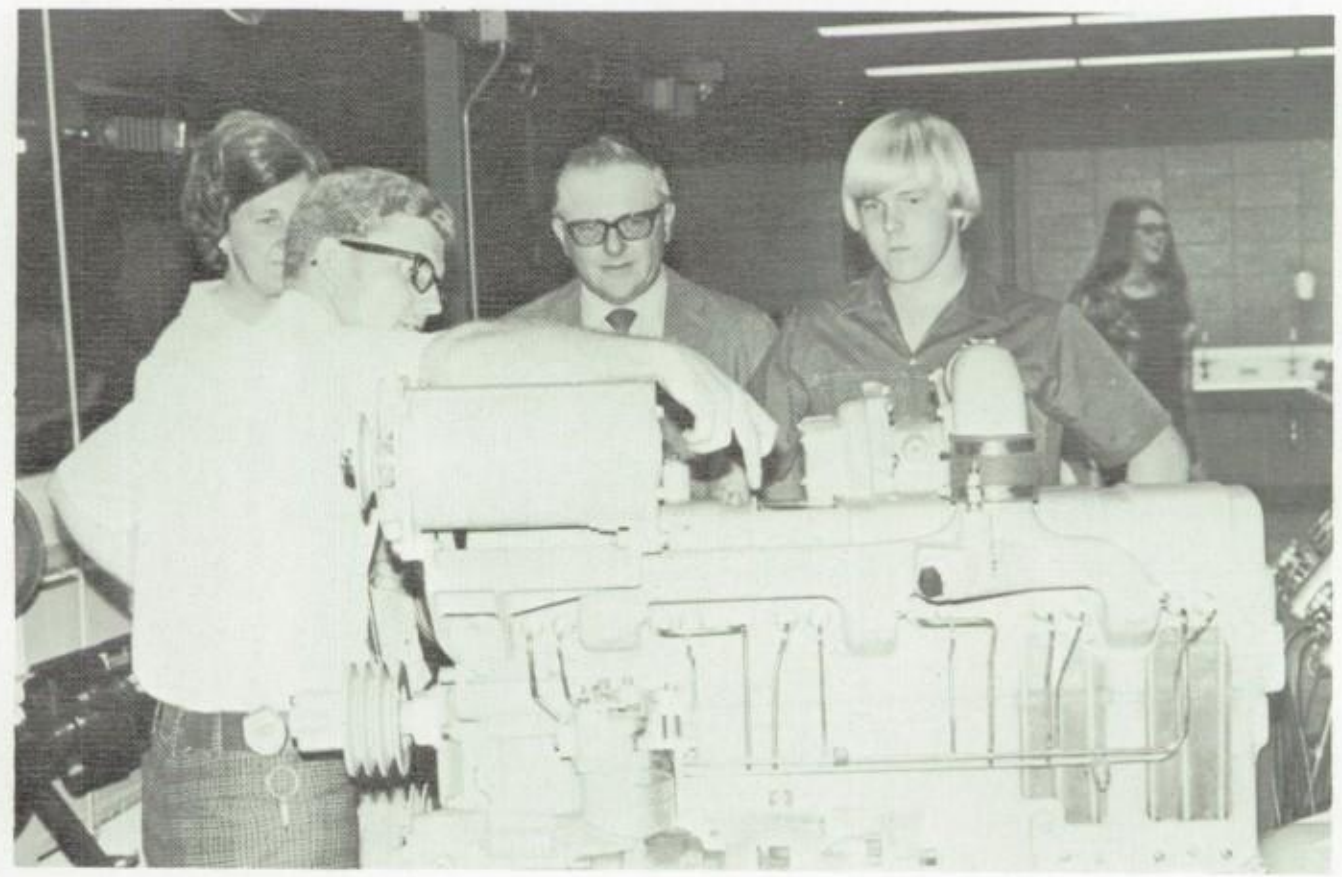

While the air-conditioned "300 Building" bustled with the activities of nearly 700 students, the halls of the main building were crowded with furniture as paint crews and custodians worked in the rooms.

Open House '73 Has a New Look

SHS students and their parents had their annual opportunity to visit with teachers and administrators during 1973's Open House held on a Thursday evening in late October. In '73 the switch from Student Council members to FTA members as guides gave Open House a new look. Besides registering visitors, the FTA members gave guided tours of SHS to those guests who were not familiar with the school and its facilities. Open House was topped off with a "social hour" held in the school cafeteria.

Moms and Dads Honored at S.H.S.'s First Parents' Night

On the night of October 19, parents of the OWL football team and cheerleaders were honored at S.H.S.'s first Parents' Night. During the pre-game ceremony, team players, cheerleaders, and their parents were introduced to the crowd as they walked downfield to the Seymour bench. Parents then moved to the center section of the bleachers where they enjoyed the game.

Immediately following the game, parents, players, cheerleaders, coaches, teachers, and administrators of the Seymour schools were guests at a short reception in the high school cafeteria.

Beth Bowman Reigns Over '73 Homecoming Festivities

On the night of September 21, Seymour High School's 1973 Homecoming festivities took place at Bulleit Stadium. During the halftime ceremonies, senior Beth Bowman was crowned as 1973 Homecoming Queen. Serving on Beth's Court were: Cathy Bode, junior; Cindy Johnson, sophomore; and Debbie Planck, freshman.

An added highlight to the 1973 halftime was SHS's first "Float" contest. As the "wagon-sized" floats were paraded in front of the fans, the judges made their careful decision. The junior class was awarded first place with its theme, "Keep On Truckin'."

S.H.S. Advanced Choir Presents "Sound of Music" to Overflow Crowds

On the nights of November 17 and 18 the S.H.S. Advanced Choir presented Rodgers and Hammerstein's delightful and heart-warming musical, "Sound of Music," to overflow crowds in the S.H.S. Auditorium. The performance was under the direction of Mr. Earl D. Prout.

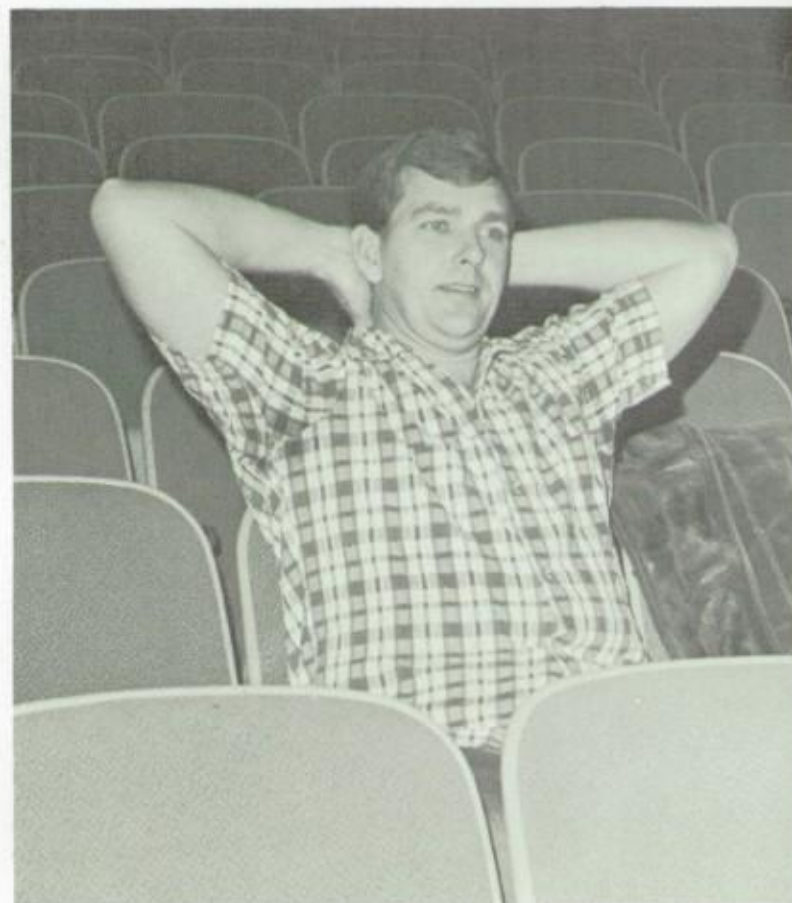

The setting of the musical was in an Austrian town during the 1930's just prior to World War II.

The outstanding abilities of the entire cast, directors, and stage crew earned standing ovations on both nights of their performances.

2nd-Ranked Hammond Takes Holiday Tourney Title

On December 29, 1973, the Seymour OWLs were hosts to Hammond, West Lafayette, and Jeffersonville for the annual Seymour Holiday Tournament. All eyes were on the tourney since the first afternoon game paired up two of the state's powerhouses, Hammond and Jeff. As expected, the game was extremely close, but Hammond edged out the Red Devils 61 to 59 in overtime. That loss was the only blemish on Jeff's eventual 19-1 season record.

In the second afternoon game, Seymour whipped West Lafayette, thus earning a shot at the Holiday Tourney title for the second straight year. However, the 2nd-ranked 'Cats proved to be too much, and the OWLs fell to a 90-71 defeat. Fortunately, that loss was a turning point in the OWLs' season too, for they sprang back quickly and tallied eleven straight victories in their remaining regular-season games for a final 17-3 mark, one of the best in the state in 1974.

Junior guard Dan Thomas is wide open for a lay-up and two sure points against the Hammond Wildcats in the Holiday Tourney finale.

Choir and Band Depts.' Winter Concerts Capture Holiday Spirit

With the auditorium stage gaily decorated for the holiday season, Mr. McGrew leads the Symphonic Band in one of their concert numbers.

The Choir Department's annual Christmas Concert was highlighted by the Advanced Choir's production of the opera, "Amahl and the Night Visitors." They succeeded in giving three fine performances: one on Thursday, December 20, and two convos the following day for the student body.

The Symphonic and Concert Bands did their part in stirring up Christmas spirit with their holiday concert the preceding Thursday. A reception was held in the school cafeteria after the program for band members, their families, and friends.

67 Graduate at 3rd Mid-year Graduation Ceremony

Sixty-five SHS seniors officially ended their high school careers with formal graduation ceremonies on Thursday, January 17, 1974. Martha Ashcraft was Mistress of Ceremonies for the Mid-Year Graduation, and John Wiethoff gave an inspiring address to the honored graduates, while Rev. Overton Sacksteder presented the invocation and message. Graduating in mid-winter is a growing, popular option, because students have more of an opportunity to find a job or enter college earlier.

The graduates were honored with a senior dinner at The Pines the night before the ceremony. Debbie Kern, Becky Davis, and Tom Wince provided entertainment for the evening.

"The Show Must Go On" at Choirs' Spring Concert

The old proverb, "The show must go on," easily characterized the Choirs' 1974 Spring Concert. With the director, Mr. Prout, sick in the hospital, the students took over and put on a splendid program in Mr. Prout's honor. With seniors Becky Davis and Larry Crane directing and emceeing, the Advanced Choir, Swing Choir, Concert Choir, and Girls' Glee Club presented many springtime numbers to the delighted audience. Like the band, the choirs use the Spring Concert as an Honors Concert, and Becky recognized all the senior members in the four organizations.

Tony Clark Wins Sousa Award at Band Department's Spring Concert

The Band Department presented its 1974 Spring Concert on May 2. At this concert, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lenicheck were guest soloists from Indiana University. Every bandsman was recognized and given a certificate, letter, or key for his participation in band. Special recognition was given to seniors who had six years of service. The highlight of the evening came when senior drum major Tony Clark was announced as the 1974 winner of the coveted John Philip Sousa Award.

Scott Hobson grins broadly after giving Mr. McGrew a surprise gift from the seniors, a trumpet-player made of nuts and bolts.

Dramatics Club Presents "Bad Seed"

The Dramatics Club is open to any SHS student who is interested in gaining useful stage experience by putting on short skits at the club's scheduled meetings or by attempting something more challenging . . . such as the annual Dramatics Club Play.

The evening of December 15, 1973, climaxed many hours of hard rehearsal after school, in the evenings, and on Saturdays in preparation for this year's production of Maxwell Anderson's Broadway chiller, "BAD SEED." The plot revolved around a "charming" nine-year-old girl who had inherited criminal tendencies from her grandmother, a mass-murderess. Through this inheritance, she manages to commit three cold-blooded murders.

Under the direction of Mr. Blythe and Mrs. Ralston, the cast and crew were successful in producing this theatrical chiller.

Christine Penmark (Becky Davis) struggles to obtain a murder weapon, a pair of shoes, from her daughter (Julie Ray).

Reginal Tasker (Scott Bishop) explains to Richard Bravo (Dan O'Connor) that criminal instincts can be inherited.

“The Apollo of Bellac” Is First '74 Production of SHS Drama Class

The SHS Dramatics Class, under the direction of class instructor C. E. McCord, presented “The Apollo of Bellac” as their first play of the school year on January 4. As a change from recent years, this one-act production was given for college-bound students only.

The scene was set in the reception room of the International Bureau of Inventions in Paris. As usual, senior Becky Davis was outstanding in her portrayal of Agnes, the shy girl who is taught that she can have her way with any man if she will — upon meeting him — declare that he is handsome and compare him to the statue of the Apollo of Bellac.

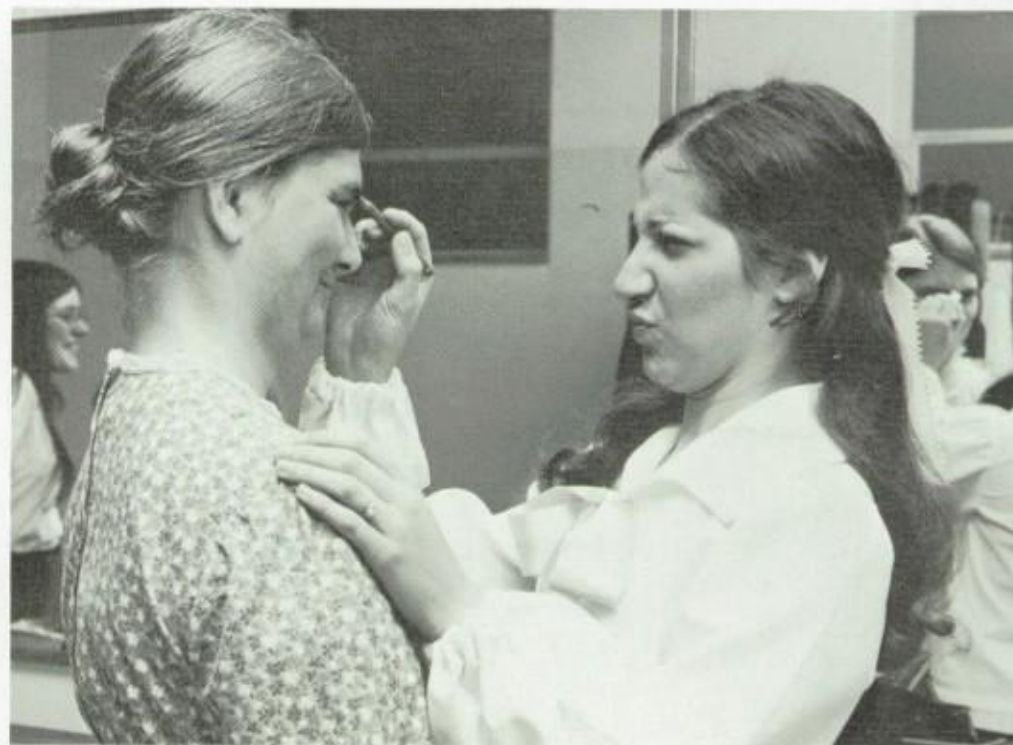

The play, filled with wry comments, was entertaining for the college-bound students and proved to be a valuable learning experience for the Dramatics Class students, both on-stage and behind-the-scenes.

SHS Drama Class Continues Successful Year With "Our Town"

As their second play of year, the SHS Dramatics Class presented "Our Town," again for college-bound juniors and seniors. "Our Town" is a traditional high school favorite because it offers high school groups the opportunity to work with Thornton Wilder's innovations: no props, no backdrops, and a stage manager as a narrator. Becky Davis, in the final performance of a distinguished high school dramatics career, portrayed Emily Webb, while Tom Easterday, another drama veteran, played George Gibbs.

“Nightclub” Theme Provides Atmosphere for Pops Concert

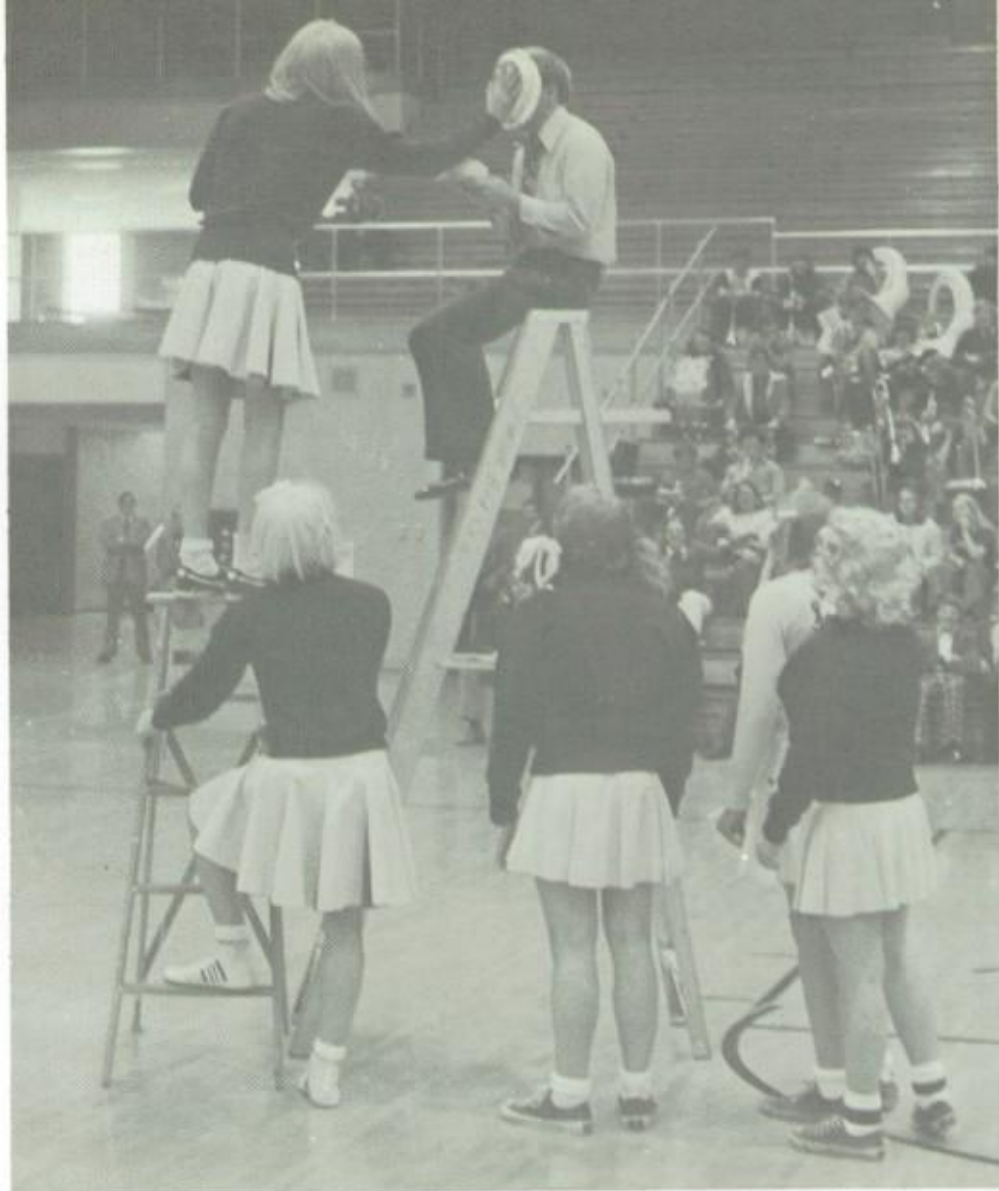

As early as January, committees were formed to begin preparations for the annual Pops Concert held in the gym on Friday night, March 15, 1974. Candlelighted tables carried out the “nightclub” atmosphere, while the Campus Owls, the German, Concert, and Symphonic Bands entertained with music ranging from modern to classical. The Featherettes added their own baton and dance routines to several of the numbers to make the evening’s performance complete.

Pep Sessions Boost SHS Spirit

Screams, cheers, speeches, skits, yells, confetti, and students were a few of the ingredients that made this year's pep sessions successful in boosting OWL spirit here at SHS. Sessions were held at regular intervals throughout the school year on behalf of the cross country, football, swimming, wrestling, and basketball teams. Both the gym and the auditorium were used for these spirit-filled rallies.

Sectional Pep Session Highlight by SHS Spirit

With the OWLs favored to win on the court, Sectional spirit blossomed again this year at SHS, and highlighting tournament week was the traditional Sectional pep session.

Huge, colorful signs created by each class covered every inch of wall-space within the auditorium, and equally impressive were the senior mural and decorations filling the lobby. Halls too were decorated with the student body's signs depicting the enthusiasm and spirit of Hoosier Hysteria's most hectic week.

Amusing skits were provided by students from each class, and at the close of the session, seniors Debbie Henkle and Dave Earley were crowned Sectional queen and king.

OWLS Host Nineteenth Annual C.C. Invitational

Seymour's nineteenth annual Cross Country Invitational was held under unusually clear skies on Friday, September 28, 1973. Seventeen teams participated, which is a larger number than ever before. Of these seventeen teams, Seymour finished fifth with 161 total points. There were 112 runners who finished the two-and-a-half mile run, and Seymour's own Bob Hougland finished second, beaten only by a boy who would later finish second in the state finals.

OWLS Win 14th Annual Seymour Invitational

Despite cool temperatures encouraged by a typically gusty wind, the 14th annual Seymour Invitational got off to an exciting start when senior Susan Alexander was crowned queen of the event. Serving in Susan's court were: Karen Pardieck, junior; Susan Lawrence, sophomore; and Eileen Elsner, freshman, with escorts provided by the Student Council.

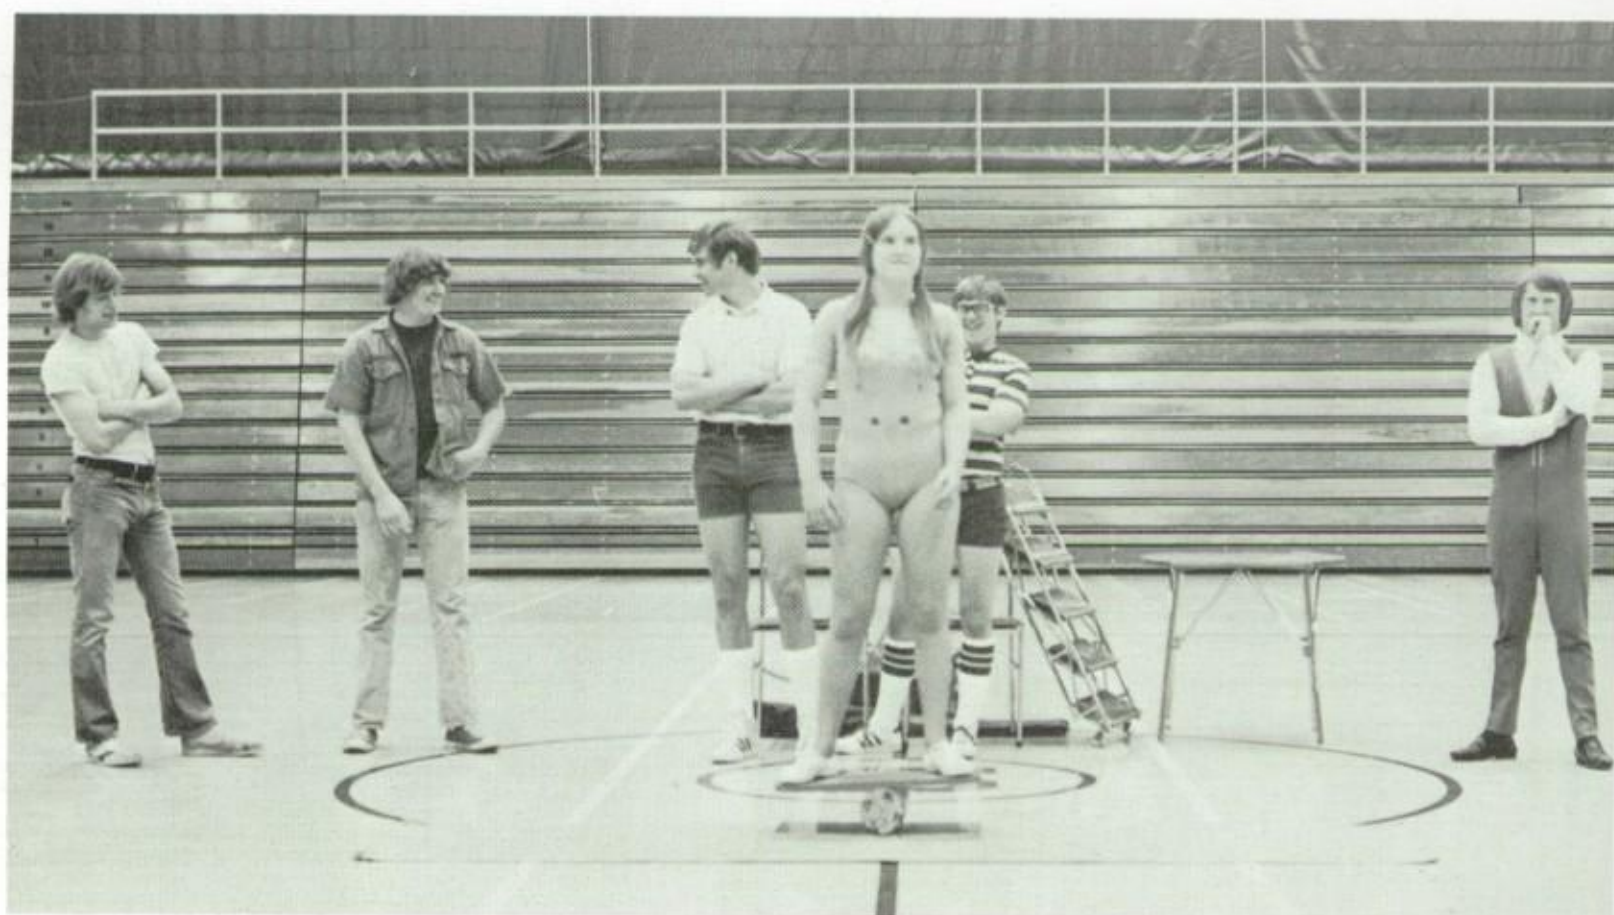

Following the crowning, action on the track and field began immediately for the host team and their guests: Providence, Bloomington North, Columbus East, Jennings County, Martinsville, Bedford, and Madison. Many close races and strong field-events participants kept the scores close, but the OWLS proved to be the strongest team by totaling 98 points to runner-up Providence's 77.

Convocations Attempt to Educate and Entertain

Occasionally throughout the 1973-74 school year, the students and faculty of SHS were given the opportunity to break away from their routine work to relax in the gym or auditorium for a well-deserved convocation. The subjects of these convos were varied, but they were all scheduled for the same purpose: to entertain as well as educate. To add to the audience's delight, many times SHS students were "called on" to "aid" in the performances.

Many SHS students "volunteered" to appear in convocations. TOP: Bo McDougal lends a knee to have a lullaby sung to him. Each year, the Junior Class at Seymour High School puts on a class play in order to raise some of the money needed to present a Prom at the end of the year. In 1973-74, the Juniors chose the raucous Wild-West comedy, "The Death and Life of Sneaky Fitch." The play is currently one of the most ten popular plays put on by high school and college drama groups. Besides its popular comedy appeal, "Sneaky Fitch" has been acclaimed critically for its originality. Many members of the Class of '75 put in long hours to make the play a financial and an audience-pleasing success: acting out parts, doing backstage chores, and even building the entire set used for the play from scratch!

Advanced Choir's "Brigadoon" Appears Through the Highland Mist

The SHS Advanced Choir presented the ever-popular musical "Brigadoon" to very responsive audiences on the spring nights of March 22 and 23.

The mysterious village of "Brigadoon" reappeared through the mist of the Scottish highlands after a hundred-year period on the SHS stage under the direction of Mr. Earl D. Prout. There, an outsider from the modern day world falls in love with a Scottish lass from "Brigadoon" and finally decides to give up his position in this world to live in Brigadoon forever.

Through the tremendous efforts of the entire choir, "Brigadoon" still reappears now and then in the minds of those who saw it.

Juniors Turn Prom Into an Enchanted Medieval "Camelot"

For the 1974 Prom, the Class of 1975 set the dial back a few centuries, transforming the everyday SHS gymnasium into the enchanted kingdom of "Camelot." The process of transformation was started immediately after Spring Break and was concluded on May 17. At nine o'clock that evening, juniors, seniors, and faculty were welcomed on the main floor by Merlin's alchemist's lab. Crossing the bridge, guests entered a mystical Enchanted Forest, massed with evergreens and giant toadstools. From there, one entered the castle area with its Royal Forest, complete with liveried "serfs," beckoning to the request of every "royal" guest. Highlighted by the crowning of Cathy Bode, the 1974 Prom turned out to be quite a success.

Working with sticky papier-mache, chicken-wire, and giant mailing tubes, juniors Janet Swain and Jan Murphy work hard to create one of the Enchanted Forest's giant mushrooms.

LEFT: The favorite "ice-breaker" for the evening was the old favorite, the "Bunny Hop." Thanks to concerned faculty members and the Girls' Club, three one-night dance lessons were held prior to the Prom. Any student wanting to learn to dance could come. The results were a crowded Prom with couples dancing everywhere.

“The Way We Were” Is 1974 After-Prom Theme

The parents of the juniors and seniors at SHS turned the time machine forward and stopped it just short of the present for the 1974 After-Prom. Echoing the theme, “The Way We Were,” were giant-sized photographs from grade school and junior high school choirs, teams, and classes mounted against a shadowed background.

Students and their dates were served cones, ice cream, and Cokes and ate on tables decorated with “little red wagons” filled with other snacks.

Kids and parents alike danced to the Continentals, a fourteen-piece band, backed by the theme of the evening spelled out behind them in “dancing” letters.

The parents of the upperclassmen did a remarkable job of making the After-Prom one that SHS students would not soon forget, always reminding us of our school life and . . . the way we were.

Many Deserving Students Recognized at Annual Honor Day

Up until the 1970-71 school year, Honor Day and Class Day were two separate SHS programs. The arrival of the freshman class made the enrollment too large to use the auditorium, so when the move was made to the huge new gymnasium, the two former programs were molded into one. Two features of the old Class Day were retained: the marching in of the Senior Class and the presentation of the Class Key.

A surprised and tearfully-happy Jeanne Antle receives the Forty-and-Eight's annual scholarship to a school of nursing — and the annual kiss from Mr. Knoke, who shows up each Honor Day to "do the honors" for his organization.

On Thursday, May 16, seniors, underclassmen and guests filled up the gymnasium for the annual Honor Day program. Even though more and more SHS organizations are holding their own award-giving ceremonies, Honor Day is still the one day in the school year when honors are bestowed on deserving SHS students: from the handful of Seniors with perfect attendance to the dozens of students who earn service awards for their work on behalf of the school during the school year.

In addition, many business men and women take time from their busy days to come and honor SHS students too. At the end of the Honor Day proceedings this year, Mr. Keyser announced that over $46,000 worth of scholarships had been awarded to SHS students on that morning alone!

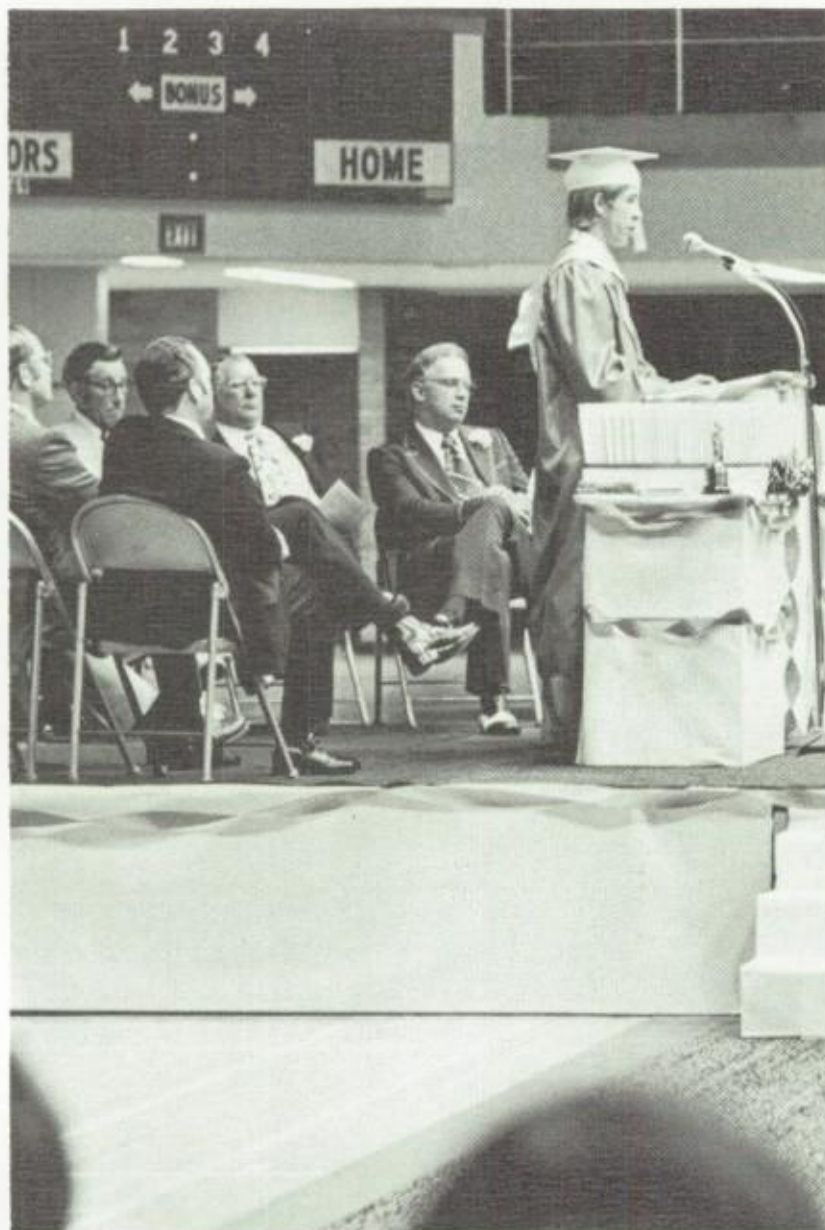

Top honor-winners in '73-74 were Dave Earley as the year's outstanding athlete; Tom Easterday as Outstanding Senior Boy; and Julia Laupus as Outstanding Senior Girl.

Don Kastner gave the invocation, and class president John Wiethoff welcomed the large crowd of friends, relatives, and faculty members. Following speeches by Tom Smith, valedictorian, and Tim Sauls, salutatorian, Board of Education members Tom Tracy and Donald Earnest presented diplomas to the 230 spring graduates. The Symphonic Band and the Advanced Choir also added musical numbers to the program. Principal Edwin Lyskowinski presented medals to the twenty members of the eight-semester Senior Honor Roll and statuettes to the valedictorian and salutatorian.

Athletic Board Revises Boys' Awards System

The Athletic Board of Seymour High School is comprised of: the Superintendent, the high school principal, the athletic director, head coaches in all the boy's varsity sports, the ticket manager, the junior high principal, an elementary principal, and representatives from the Board of Education, the girls' athletic program, and the elementary program.

This important group meets seasonally three times during the school year to keep a supervisory eye on the growing SHS athletic program. In 1973-74, after long deliberation, the group revised the system by which boys win sports awards at SHS, planned for the resurfacing of the tennis courts, and made other long-range plans that will modernize the future athletic program at SHS in many ways.

Athletic Director Lloyd "Barney" Scott pauses beside the huge bulletin board that fills one wall of his office — containing present and future schedules for every SHS sport.

Post Impressive 14-3 Record

Girls' Volleyball Team Wins Sectional Title

The girls' volleyball team completed their second season with a 14-3 record, considerably better than last year's 5-5 record. The girls stopped Hauser 15-7 and 15-12 to win their own Sectional. They defeated East Central in the Regional, but fell to a tough Jeffersonville team. Junior Carol Haskett and Senior Debbie Henkle tied for the Most Valuable Player award. Coach Sullivan felt that a strong point in the team's success was their teamwork and desire to win.

The OWL harriers ended the 1973 season with four wins, three losses, and one tie out of the eight dual and triangular meets, while the Reserve runners ended their season with a 2-2 record.

The much-improved Bob Hougland finished first in the large SCC meet, a feat unequaled by any other OWL runner in the past seventeen years. Bob, the 1973 MVP, also placed second individually in the IHSAA Sectional and went on to the Regional. Earlier, in the Bloomington Class Cross Country Run, Bob finished second out of the 177 runners in the Junior class race.

In the large meets, the OWLs finished fifth in the SCC meet at Connersville and then finished sixth out of twenty-six at the Sectional. During the long season, most of the boys improved their individual times, and since only two OWLs are lost by graduation, 1974's record should be even better.

In the fall of the 1973-74 school year, the freshman cross country team finished the season with three wins and two losses. Paul Smith led the squad as number-one man, with Bill Massengale, Lewis Pollert, and Eddie Wagner also proving to be promising runners.

In addition to the regular season of dual meets, the young harriers participated in their Seymour Invitational in which they placed fourth out of eight teams, and placed eighth in the seventeen-team Columbus Invitational.

Girl Golfers End Season With Six Wins, Two Losses

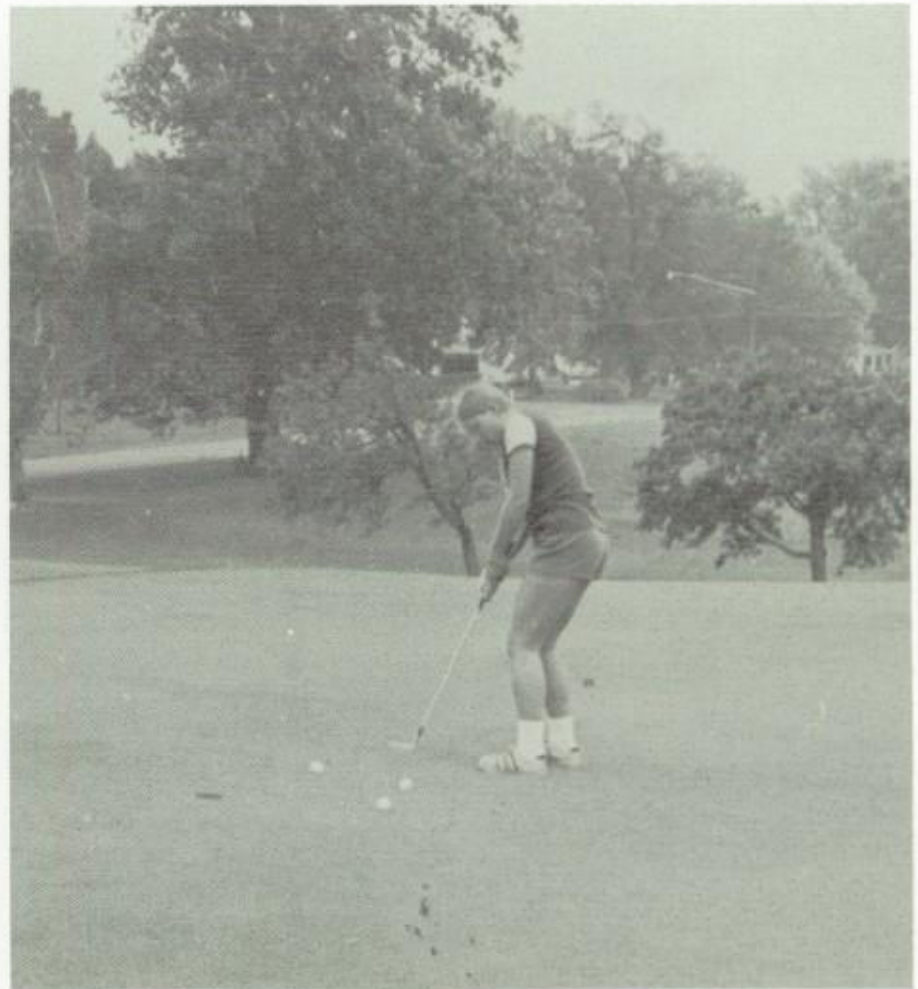

The girls' golf team ended their season in the fall of '73 with a 6-2 record. During the season, the girls continually lowered their individual scores, with Liz Larrison being the OWLs' medalist in each of the matches. The team all saved their best scores for the IHSA Sectional, when they finished third out of eight teams. All of the girls were underclassmen, so Coach Lubker is looking forward to an even better '74 showing.

"Turn Things Around"

OWL Golfers Complete Successful Fall Season

After several dismal losing seasons in a row, the 1973 OWL golf team "turned things around" in the fall segment of their schedule with a record in dual and triangular meets of six wins and four losses. Under full-time coach Bob Krietenstein, the linksmen finished sixth in the SCC, a jump of three places over the past two seasons.

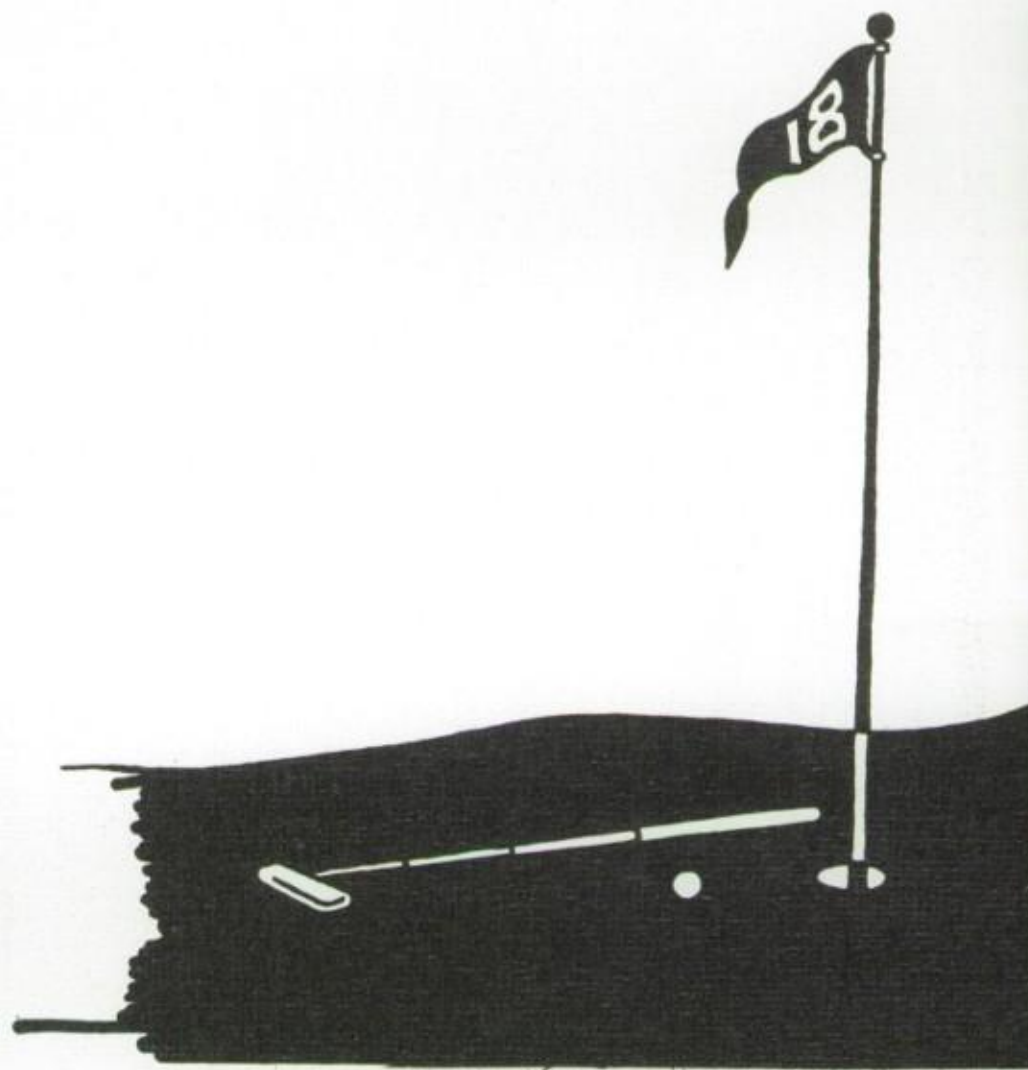

Highlights of the fall season included Gregg Scott's being Seymour's team medalist in the SCC meet; number-one man Rex Meyer's breaking the team record for lowest nine-hole and eighteen-hole scores; and Brent Doolan's rare two eagles during the season.

Following his drive, OWL golfer Duke Hampton hurries to follow Rex Meyer and their two opponents off the tee during the dual meet with Columbus North.

Exhibiting an excellent follow-through, Rex Meyer hits a fairway iron shot while his match opponent respectfully looks on, waiting to move on to his own next shot.

Injury-Plagued Owls Suffer Losing Season

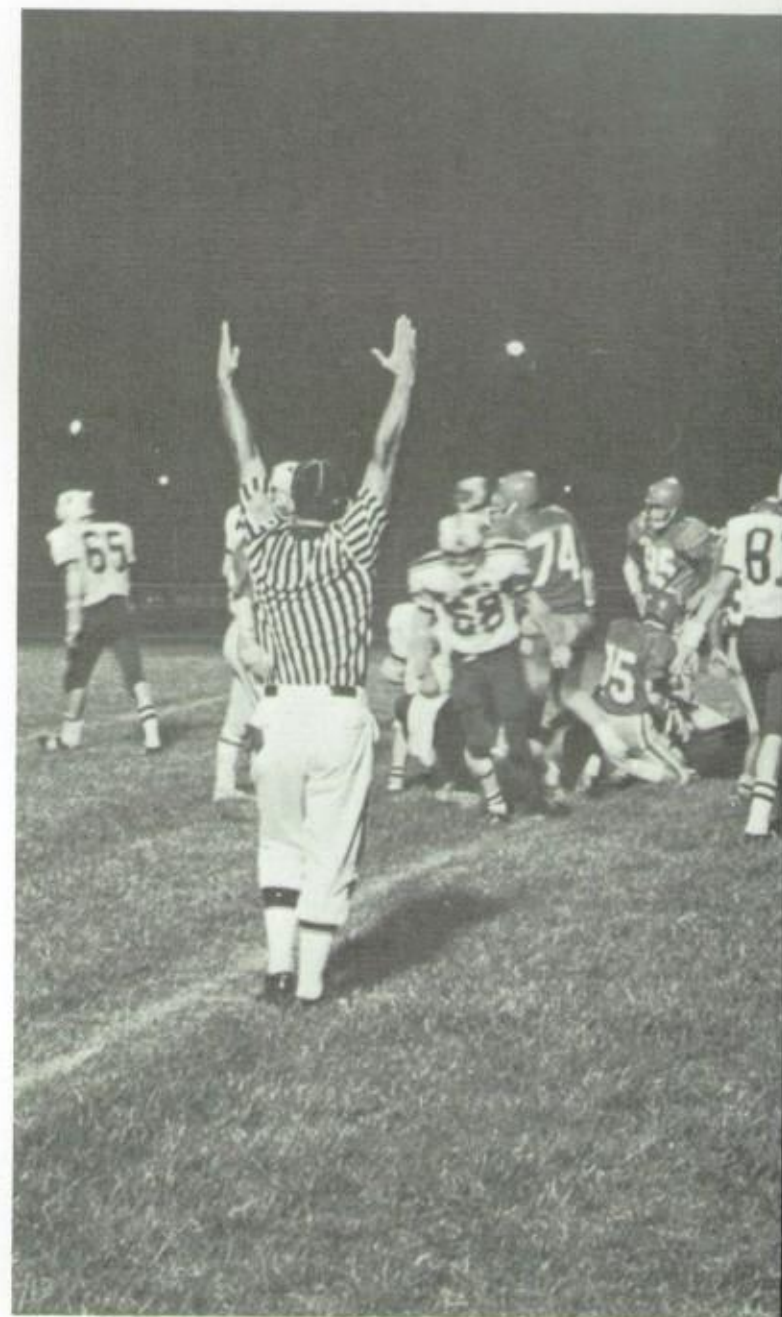

SENIOR OWLS: 1. David Earley; 2. Mike Sterling; 3. Dan Meek; 4. Dave Wintin; 5. Dan O'Connor; 6. Will Wienhorst; 7. Gary Schneider; 8. Mark Waggoner; 9. Jim Simmons; 10. Rick Schleibaum; 11. Mark Suminski; 12. Kim Blevins; 13. Jeff Ude; 14. Ray Brown; 15. Charlie Fox; 16. Steve Bevers; 17. Jerry Rumph.

Posting a 3-7 season record, the 1973 OWL Football Team turned in a season much like the 1972 team's final record. One difference was that the 1973 OWLS won their first SCC game in two years. On the negative side, this year's OWLS suffered five shutouts in their seven losses.

One problem which caused the second poor season in a row for the OWLS was injuries: David Earley, a starting end, was injured in pre-game warm-ups in the first game of the season when he backed into a Columbus East Olympian and broke his wrist; a knee injury to junior running back Gregg Sciarra kept him hobbled for much of the season; a recurring shoulder injury caused halfback Mike Sterling to miss several quarters of play; a shoulder separation kept sophomore Tony Anderson out of several games; in the Jeffersonville game, a slight concussion took Bo McDougal out of the game before the half; finally, in the Providence game, a painful nerve injury in the lower back removed Earley from the lineup for a second time.

All was not lost, however, as senior Rick Schleibaum finished his high school football career with two high honors — Most Valuable Player and Tackler of the Year. Despite his injuries, senior Mike Sterling was voted Back of the Year, and senior guard Steve Bevers was selected Lineman of the Year.

Reserves End Season With 2-5-2 Record

Because of a slow start in the fall of the 1973 school year, the reserve football team slumped to a 2-5-2 final record. Coach Cullen Stahl used a two-platoon system throughout the season which allowed every player to start, regardless of his ability. Working together under the two-platoon system, the players improved toward the end of the season, and many of them gained more experience for possible candidacy for next year's varsity squad.

Frosh Owls Finish With 2-6 Season

Although the Frosh football record was only 2-6 in the fall of 1973, Coach Gordon Reynolds was still pleased with his team's effort, because three of the six losses came in the final minutes of the games. In the last game of the season, however, the team "got it all together" when they handed Columbus South a 32-29 defeat. Like most sports on the Freshman level, the season laid the foundation for many of the boys to develop into fine athletes.

Cheerleaders Bring Fun and Excitement to OWL Fans

In May of 1973, Martha Ashcraft, Beth Bowman, Kim Graessle, Debbie Henkle, and Jill Robertson were elected as the 1973-74 Varsity cheerleaders. The girls spent many hours practicing and perfecting such skills as poise, ability, and voice control in preparation for the football and basketball seasons. During the summer, the girls attended a cheerleader camp at Vincennes where they learned new chants, yells, and skits. In the fall of 1973, the cheerleaders held daily practices after school coordinating their yells in order to lead the pep club and cheerblock in backing our teams. Assisted by Miss Sullivan, the cheerleaders' sponsor, in planning and organizing pep sessions, the girls made the football and basketball seasons both fun and exciting for all OWL fans.

Reserve Cheerleaders' Efforts Rewarded

Boosting the Junior Varsity team to a 17-3 season record in basketball was not an easy task, but the 1973-74 Reserve cheerleaders accomplished it with much spirit and a lot of hard work. Practicing at least twice each week during the seasons and attending camp for a week in the summer, the J-V cheerleaders perfected their yells to use during the reserve football and basketball seasons.

Frosh Cheerleaders Promote OWL Spirit

Elected in the fall by fellow classmates, the girls chosen as freshman cheerleaders had their work cut out for them. Practicing after school for many hours and receiving guidance from the Reserve and Varsity squads, they had to prepare themselves for instigating that spirit which is so well known among OWL fans. At both football and basketball games, the freshman cheerleaders kept this spirit at its peak among the sometimes sparse crowds.

The Varsity Girls' Basketball Team finished the 1973-1974 season with a 7-5 record while the Reserves were 8-1. Carol Haskett led the Varsity with an average of 16.2 points and 14.6 rebounds per game. The Reserves were led by Jean Laupus who scored an average of 5.8 points per game and Brenda Prather who pulled down an average of 9.1 rebounds per game. The highlight of the Varsity season was the second time the girls played Columbus North, and the Owls defeated the Bulldogs by the exact same score as they had earlier in the season.

21-4 Record Is 7th Best Won-Lost Record in School's "Net" History

1973-1974 VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM: ROW 1: John Wiethoff, Bo McDougal, Danny Thomas, David Earley, Will Wienhorst, Bill Penner. ROW 2: Assistant Coach Dick Stickles, Assistant Coach Mickey Beck, Ken Browning, Jeff Laupus, Ray Brown, Gregg Scott, and Head Coach Barney Scott.

The 1973-1974 Varsity basketball team compiled a 21-4 record which ranked them as the seventh best team in the school's history. While compiling this record, the Owls also won the Seymour Sectional by defeating Scottsburg, Brownstown, and finally Jennings County. They then went on to the Seymour Regional where the Owls defeated South Central before falling to Jeffersonville in the championship game. Seymour also placed second behind Jeffersonville in the conference race.

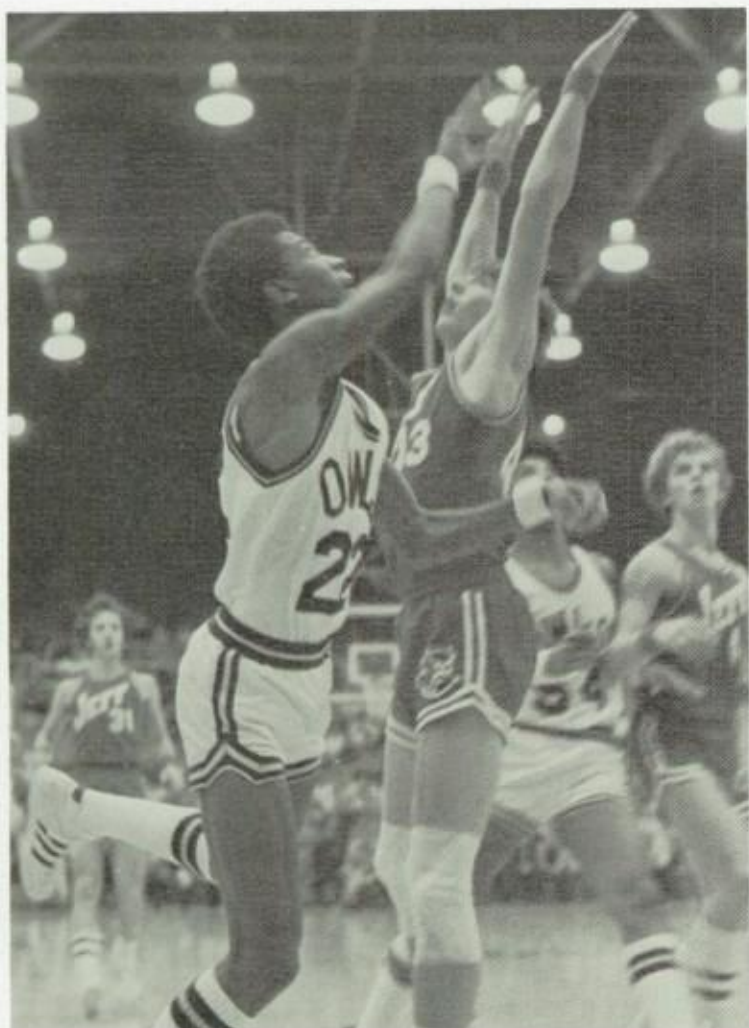

Because the Owls were a true team, a different player led in each category. Danny Thomas was high scorer with an average of 15.2 points per game while David Earley led in rebounds by pulling down an average of 8.3 rebounds per game. Ken Browning led in free throws and set a new school record by tossing in a remarkable 88.7% from the charity stripe. Bill Penner led the Owls in assists, and Bo McDougal led in minutes played.

While many fans considered the Sectional victories the highlight of the season, the Owls probably put together their best game of the season against the 1973 State Champs, the New Albany Bulldogs, beating the former State Champs by 18 points in the Bulldog gym.

Although only two Owls placed on the All-Sectional team, four Owls made the All-Regional team. Both David Earley and Will Wienhorst made the All-Sectional team and then repeated on the All-Regional team along with teammates Danny Thomas and Bo McDougal. Seymour's All-Conference representative was Will Wienhorst. Other honors were presented at the Winter Awards Banquet by Coach Barney Scott. For the first time in Seymour's history, a co-Most Valuable Player Award was given to Seniors David Earley and Will Wienhorst. Senior Kenny Browning won the trophy for his "free throwing" ability while senior Bill Penner received the 110% award.

Seymour fans experienced a great shock during the basketball season when Head Coach Barney Scott and Assistant Coach Dick Stickles announced their retirement from the coaching staff. Both Coach Scott and Coach Stickles decided to remain in the school system as Athletic Director and math teacher respectively. The School Board announced later in the year that Reserve Coach Mickey Beck would replace Coach Scott.

Owlets Post 17-3 Record

The 1973-74 Reserve team finished the season with an outstanding record of 17 wins and only 3 losses. One of the highlights of the season was the Rushville game when the Owlets came from behind by ten at halftime to win the game. Another high spot in the season was the February 1st game at Columbus when the Owlets beat Columbus North for the second time during the season. The reserves also won their own reserve tourney by beating North in the first round and then beating Franklin for the championship.

In the 1973-74 basketball season, the frosh White team continued its winning ways, posting a 7-5 record, but the Purple team, playing tougher competition, slumped to a 5-13 ledger. Both teams transferred players during the season to see that all the boys gained valuable playing-time. Highlighting the season for the Purple team was a 41-38 victory over Columbus Central in the first game of the Columbus Tourney to avenge a previous loss. The Purple squad surprised all the experts by capturing second place in the tourney, falling to Columbus North 49-41.

Throughout the season, both teams daily practiced the basic fundamentals of passing, shooting, dribbling, and defensive moves. Coaches Harry Knight and Bill Lasater were confident that these skills would be beneficial to the boys in their basketball careers.

Four Advance to State

Girls' Swim Team Places Second in Regional

Bolstered by a turnout of 23 girls, compared to only nine last year, the 1973-74 girls' swim team compiled a 12-3 season record. Highlights of the season included a second-place finish in the Regional in which Seymour girls won seven of the fourteen events. Advancing on to the State meet, at which Seymour placed 14th out of 54 teams, were Janet Swain, Rexanne Earley, Lou Anne Tangeman, and Colleen Doolan. Janet placed the highest of the Seymour swimmers, with a fourth in the 50-yard butterfly, but this was the event she'd won the past two years. Coach Lubker was very pleased with all the girls' efforts and also stated that she was looking forward to next season since the team is losing only one senior, but she added that competition was getting tougher each year.

Winning Tradition Continued by 1973-74 "Aqua-Owls"

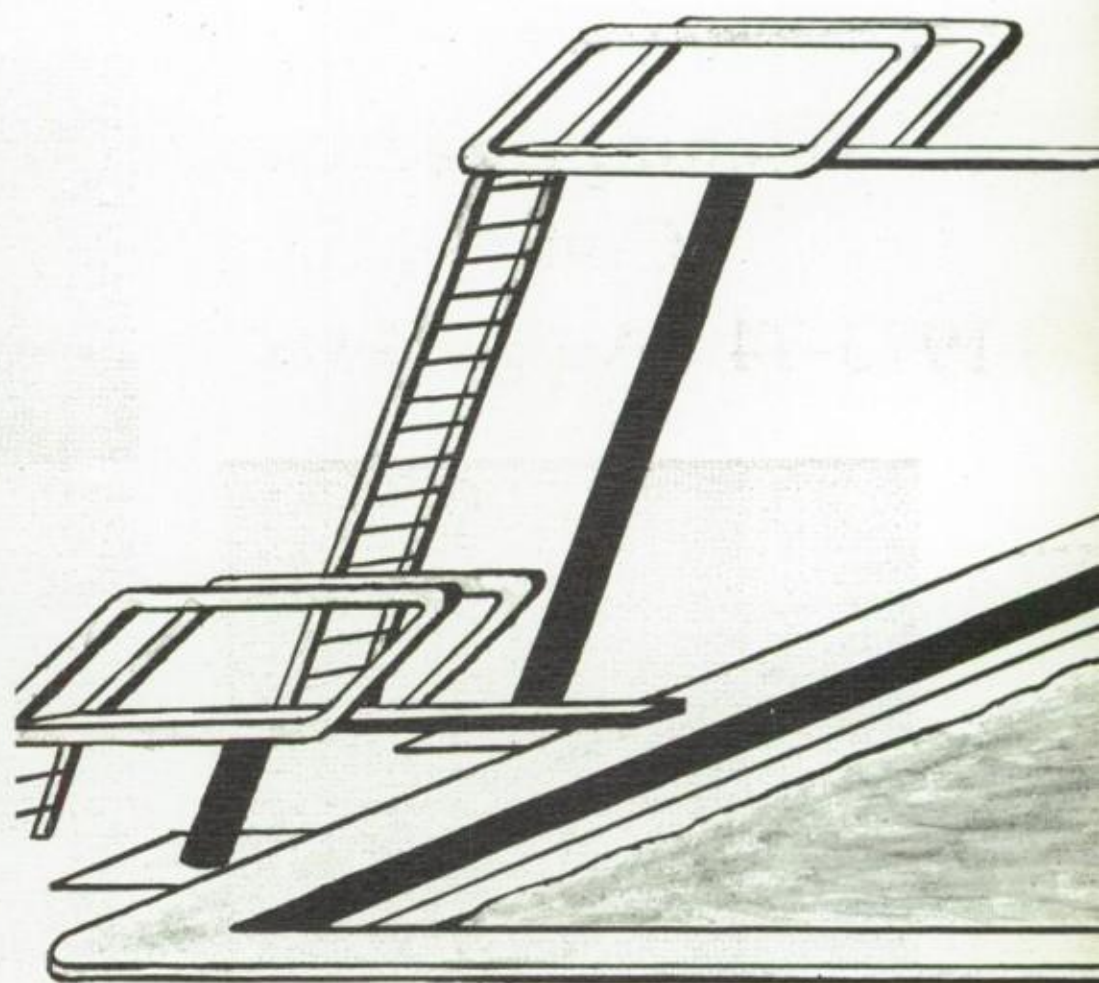

In 1973-74 the OWL swim team completed another successful season in the short history of swimming here at SHS, finishing with a fine 9-4 record, including a hard-won victory over Floyd Central for the first win over the Highlanders in four seasons. The final State ratings showed the OWLs to be 41st out of more than 100 rated teams.

In the big meets, the "Aqua-Owls" finished fifth in the SCC for the second straight year, and fifth in the IHSA Sectional, out of thirteen teams. Coach John Myers was proud of the OWLs' second consecutive winning season and said that he felt that swimming longer distances in practice and improving endurance have helped to build a strong-competitive team in the four years of the sport here at Seymour.

OWL Wrestlers Finish With 9-4 Record

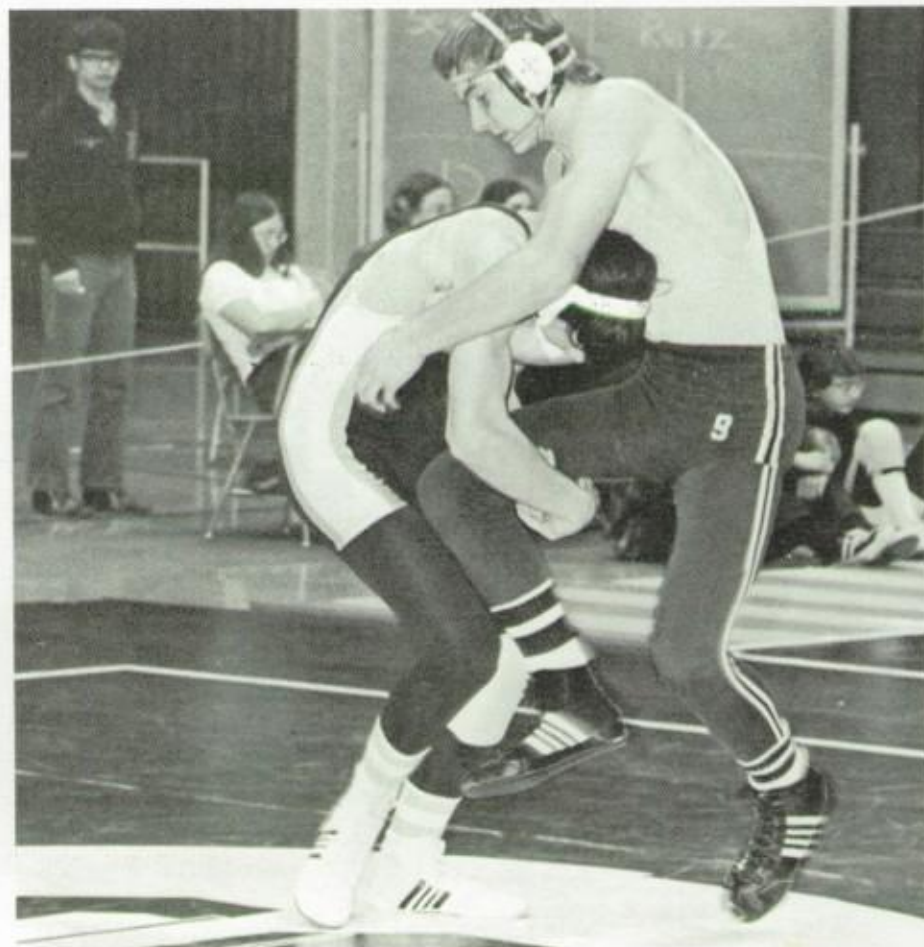

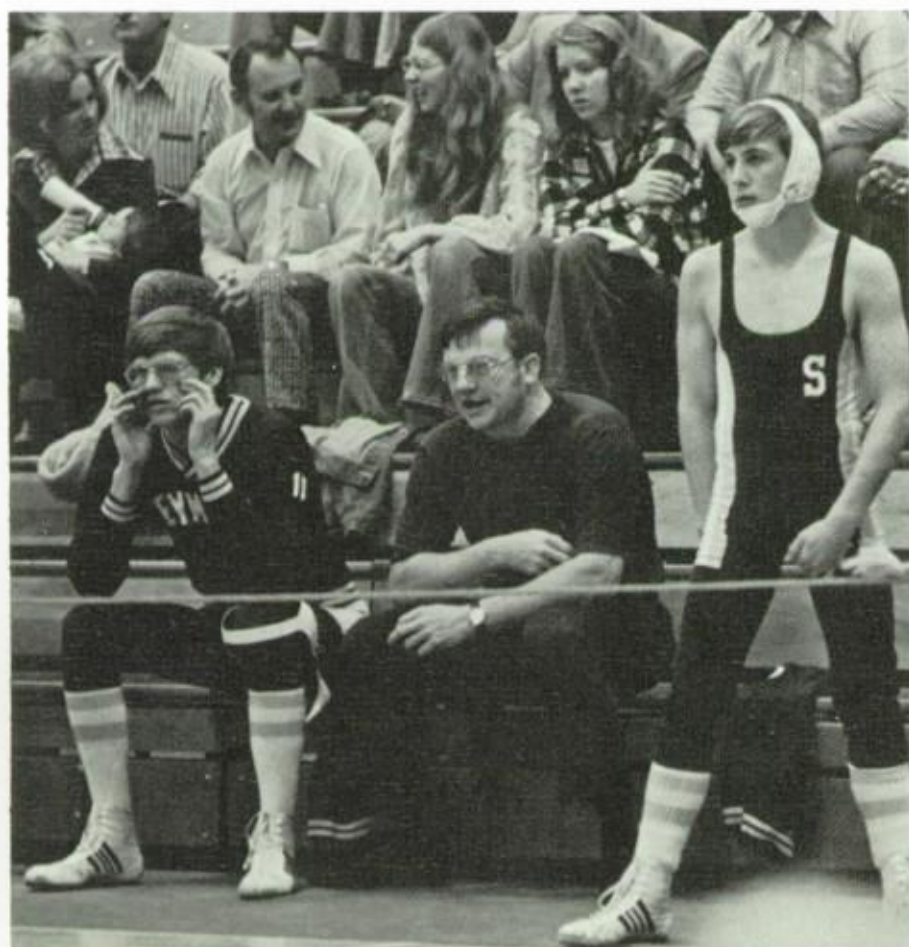

The 1973-74 OWL matmen turned in a team record of 9-4 and also had many fine individual records. The hard-working OWL grapplers took a 1st in their own Invitational, placed 4th in the Brownsburg Invitational, came in 3rd in the tough IHSA Sectional, and took 5th place in the South Central Conference meet.

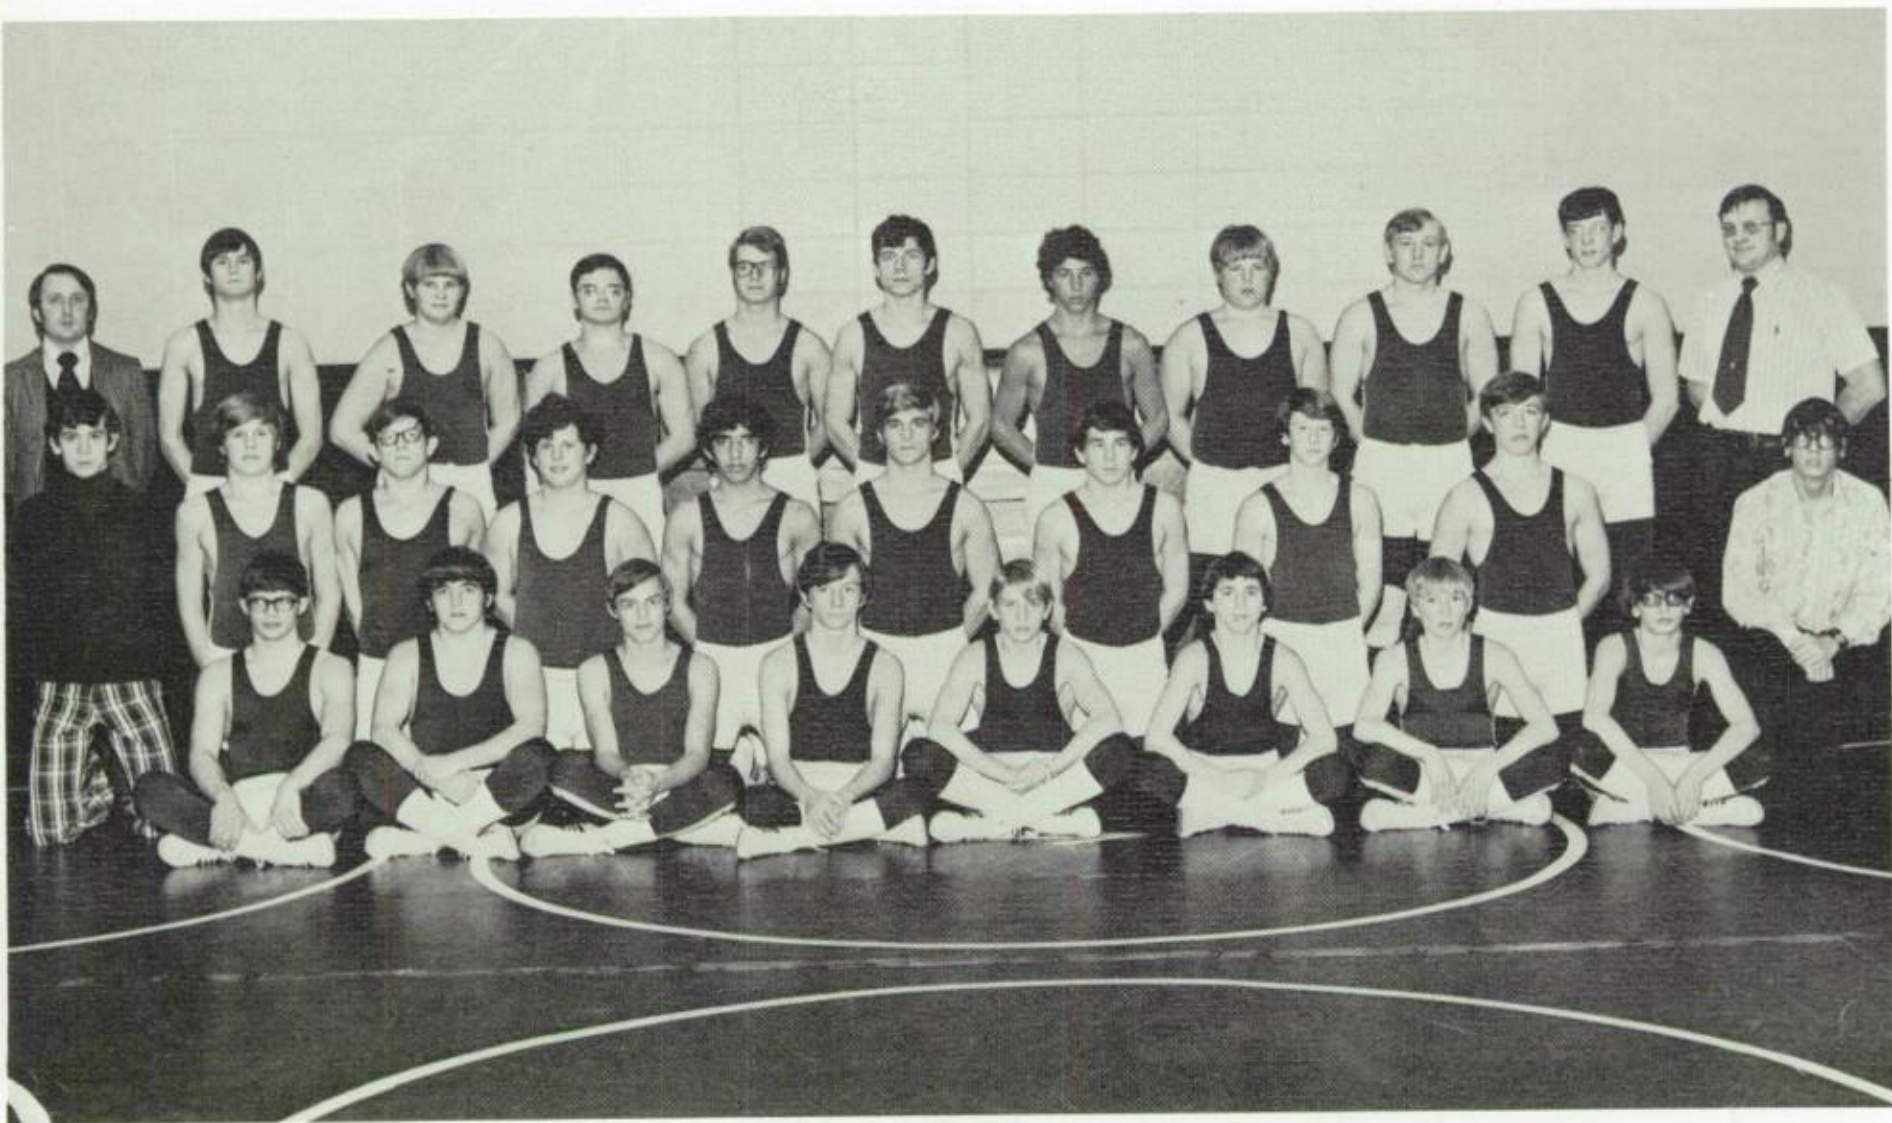

In addition to the strong team efforts in dual meets, many individual championships were won by the '73-74 OWLs. Sophomore Scott Brown defended his championships in the Seymour and Brownsburg Invitationals and the Sectional, while senior Scott Hobson retained his championships in the Seymour Invitational, the Sectional, and the SCC. Co-captains Rick Schleibaum and Charlie Fox also captured Sectional championships.

Individual season honors were won by Scott Brown (the Take-down Trophy with 41 and the Most Pins Trophy with 16); and by Scott Hobson (Outstanding Wrestler).

Reserve Wrestlers End Season With 9-4 Record

The 1973-74 reserve wrestlers completed their season with a record of nine wins and four losses, matching the Varsity's dual-meet record. Unlike most of the other high school sports, during practice sessions the Varsity and the reserves practice together, and before each meet, "wrestle-offs" are held. The winners of these contests wrestle as Varsity performers that week, with the runners-up performing for the reserves. So, many boys alternated during the two squads during the long season. Assistant Coach John Glezen, in his third season with the Owlets, felt that the 9-4 record indicated many of the boys would perform well on next year's Varsity.

Girl Tracksters Break 5 Records

Although the Girls' Track Team won only one of five dual meets in the spring of 1974, the season could be considered a very successful one in one way: the young team — over half the squad were freshmen — broke five existing records and tied another. Broken were school records in the low hurdles, the 440, the 880, the 440-relay, and the shot-put; and the long-jump record was tied. Susan Lawrence, a sophomore, was the most successful of the record-breakers; she knocked over a full second off the low hurdles record, finished second by a whisker in the Sectional, and advanced to the Regional.

Track Team Finishes Second in IHSAA Sectional

For the team as a unit, the 1974 season was a fine one. In dual meets, the thin-limbeds won eight and lost only one. Their record as a team was just as impressive in the larger meets: the OWLS won their own eight-team Invitational; they finished a surprising second in the tough New Albany Relays; later in the season, they also finished second in the 26-team IHSAA Sectional. Thirds in the SCC and Shelbyville Relays rounded out the team's excellent season.

UPPER RIGHT: In the first home meet of the season, junior hurdler Danny Thomas is easily ahead of his competitors. RIGHT: MVP Bob Houghland, also a junior, won the 880 as expected in the Seymour Invitational.

Klaes Is Top Scorer; Hougland MVP

For individuals on the Varsity track team, 1974 was a banner year too. Bob Hougland, eventually selected MVP, repeatedly lowered the 880 mark, finally settling for 1:57.5 in the Regional. Sophomore Bo McDougal bettered the existing discus mark, with a toss of 142' 3 1/2". The 880-relay team — made up of Roger Kriete, Joe Eckelman, Tim Sauls, and Chris Klaes — got into the act too, establishing a 1:31.4 mark in their specialty. Junior Chris Klaes won the total-point trophy, amassing 174 in all meets; Danny Thomas, another junior, totaled 130.

Two Longstanding Records Broken

Frosh Trackmen Compile 1-7 Ledger

Due to a small turn-out of only ten boys, the Freshman Track Team had a 1-7 record in dual meets in 1974. The small squad worked hard, however, and there was a lot of individual improvement during the season: Paul Helt tied the twelve-year-old long jump record at 19'2", and the 880-relay team lowered the Freshman team mark to 1:40.8.

1974 FRESHMAN TRACK TEAM: ROW 1: Tony Diggs, Paul Smith. ROW 2: Coach Harry Knight, Frank Hickam, Tom Stark, Tim Coffelt. ROW 3: Mark Dixon, Eddie Wagner, Kent Vermillion. ROW 4: Manager Keith McFall, Dave Wertz, Paul Helt.

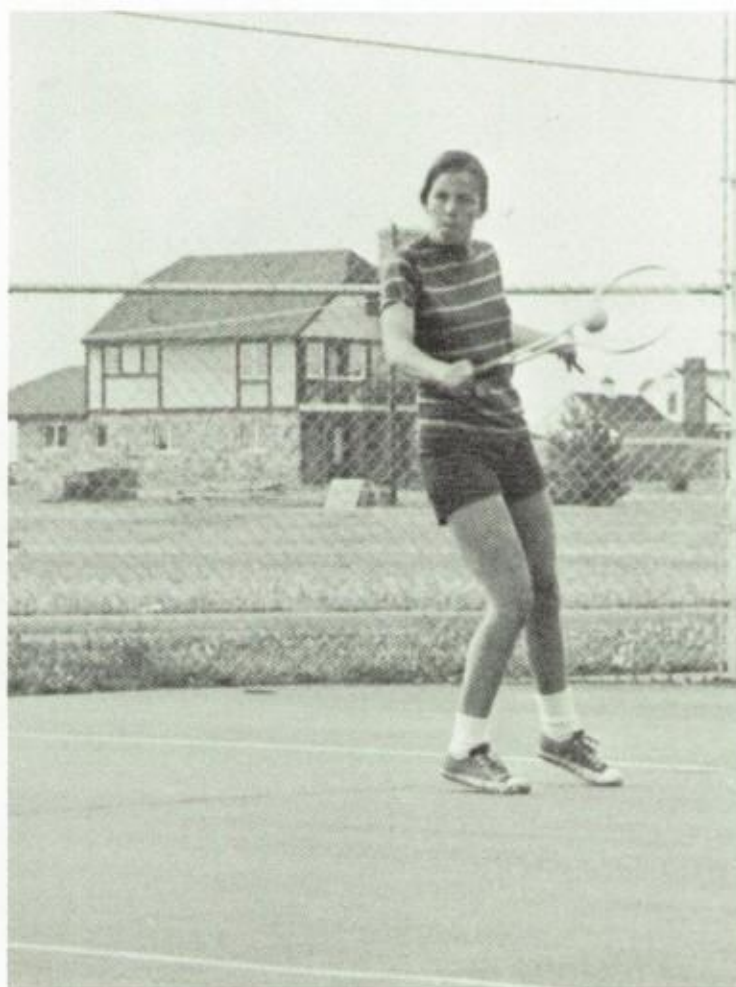

Kent Vermillion is an easy winner in the 220-yard dash in the dual meet at home against the Bedford freshmen.

Carol Haskett Advances to Regional

Girls' Tennis Team Compiles 5-2 Record

The 1974 Girls' Tennis Team completed a successful season, winning five out of their seven dual matches. Their only defeats were to the same formidable opponent, Columbus North. Carol Haskett played number-one singles all season long and placed second in the Sectional at Columbus East and advanced to the Regional at New Albany. Things ought to improve even more, because none of the eight-member varsity were seniors.

1973-74 OWL Tennis Team Compiles a Creditable 5-3 Fall Record

Under new coach Keith Masnick, the 1973 netmen won 5 and lost 3 in the fall segment of their divided season, narrowly missing second place in the IHSAA Sectional by one point. Coach Masnick thought the record could have been even better, thanks to near-wins against arch-rivals Jennings County and Bloomington South. Junior Kim Prout played number-one man all season long and lasted longest in the Sectional individually, eventually finishing second.

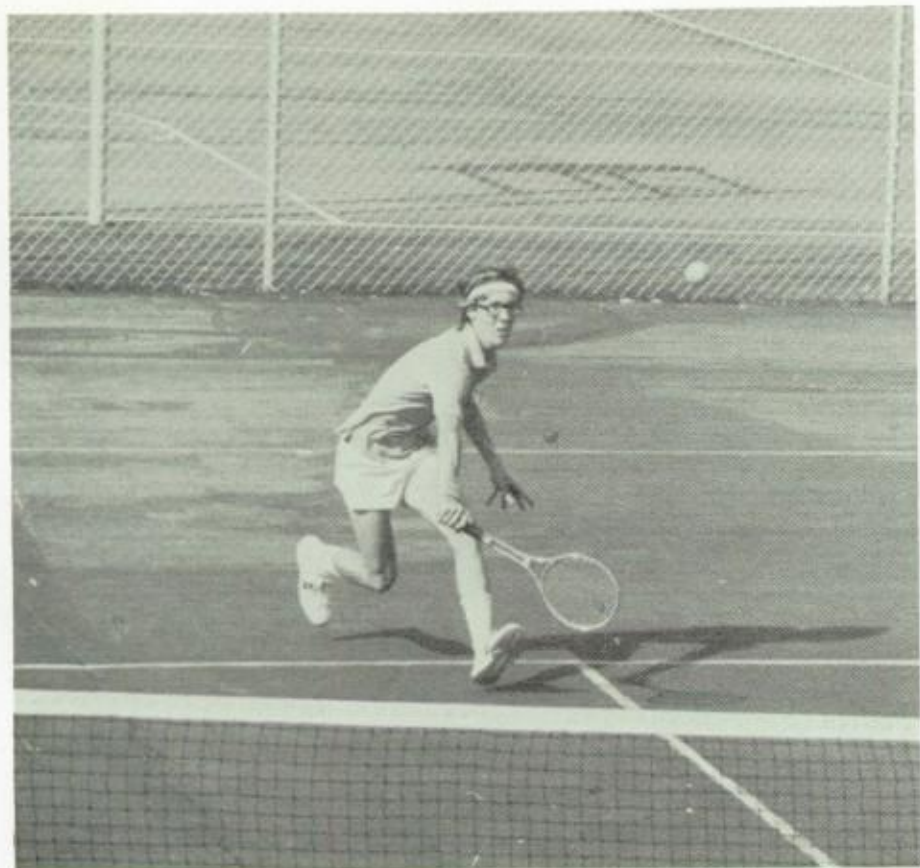

In the spring, the OWLs posted a 6-7 record in dual meets, but came up with a third-place finish in the SCC meet. At the Spring Sports Banquet, Kim Prout received the MVP trophy from Coach Masnick.

Playing in a bulky sweatsuit with 103° temperature, Kim Prout still easily defeats his Brownstown Central opponent.

ROW 3: Coach John Britton, Gene Thompson, Brian Brock, Kenny Browning, David Earley, Will Wienhorst, Jim Simmons, and Manager Mark Aikman.

Team records set by the 1974 OWL baseballers on their way to the Jasper Semi-State included their 29 total wins, a 19-game winning streak, and winning the Jeff Regional. The OWLs also set many new individual marks. Jeff Hubbard set new standards for times-at-bat and runs-scored. Dave Earley and Randy Ude shared a new mark for bases-on-balls, while Dave added a new record for stolen bases. Randy's 9-0 mark was also best-ever for an OWL pitcher.

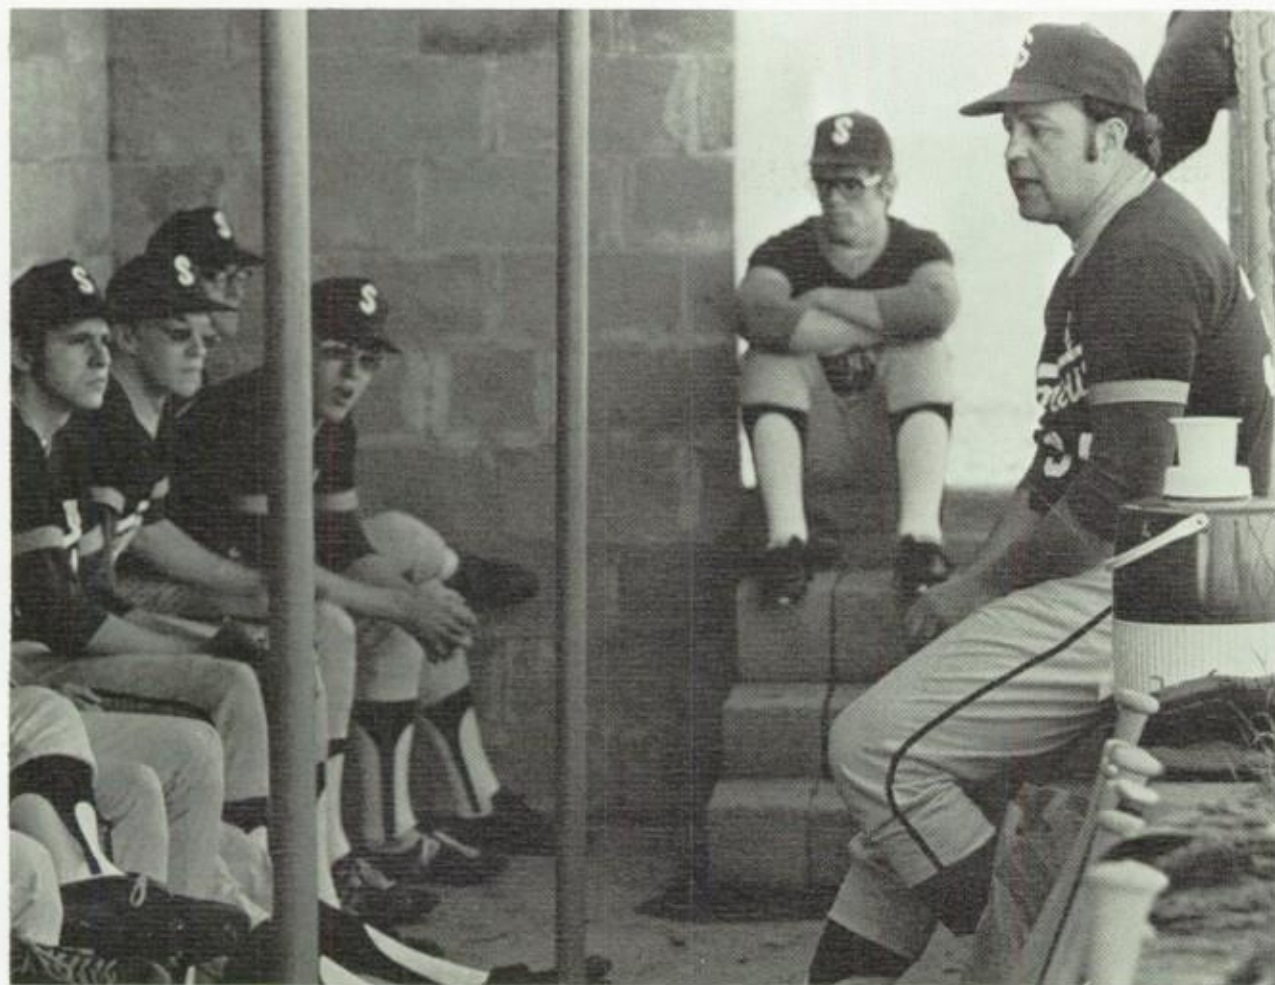

MVP Will Wienhorst set four new records:

most RBI's as a hitter; and most innings, most strikeouts, and most wins as a pitcher. All four of these record-setting OWLs were named to the All-SCC team. The OWLs captured several titles during 1974: they won the SCC and the Sectional for the second straight year; and they defeated Providence for their first-ever IHSA Regional crown.

Coach Gordon Reynolds' Owlets completed a fine season too, winning ten out of fourteen games.

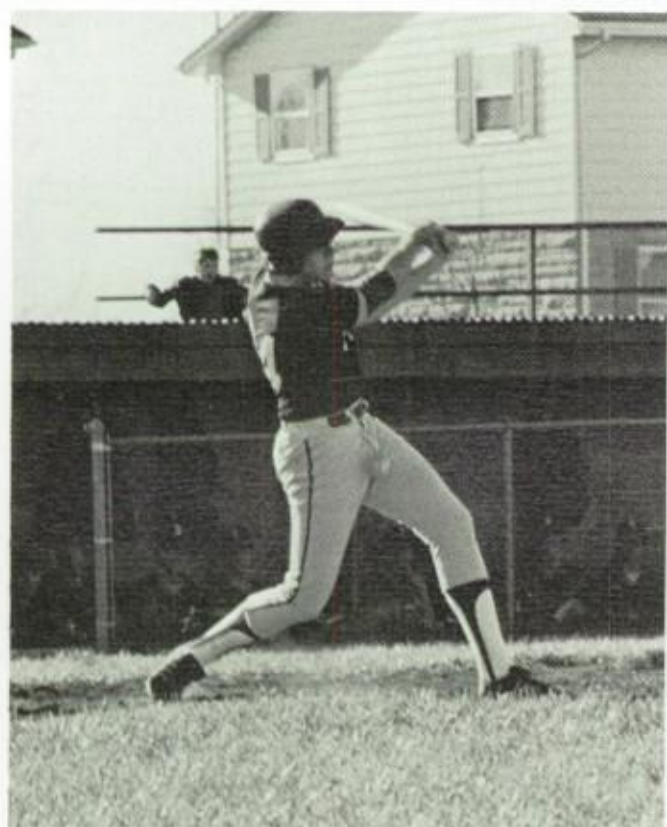

1974 RESERVE BASEBALL TEAM: ROW 1: Brad Stanfield, Scott Brown, Matt Tangman, Rick Schrink, Bill Perry, Randy Perry, Kevin Maschino, Frank Thomas. Frosh Baseballers Win Seven and Lose Six

“Knicks” Win Intramural Basketball Championship

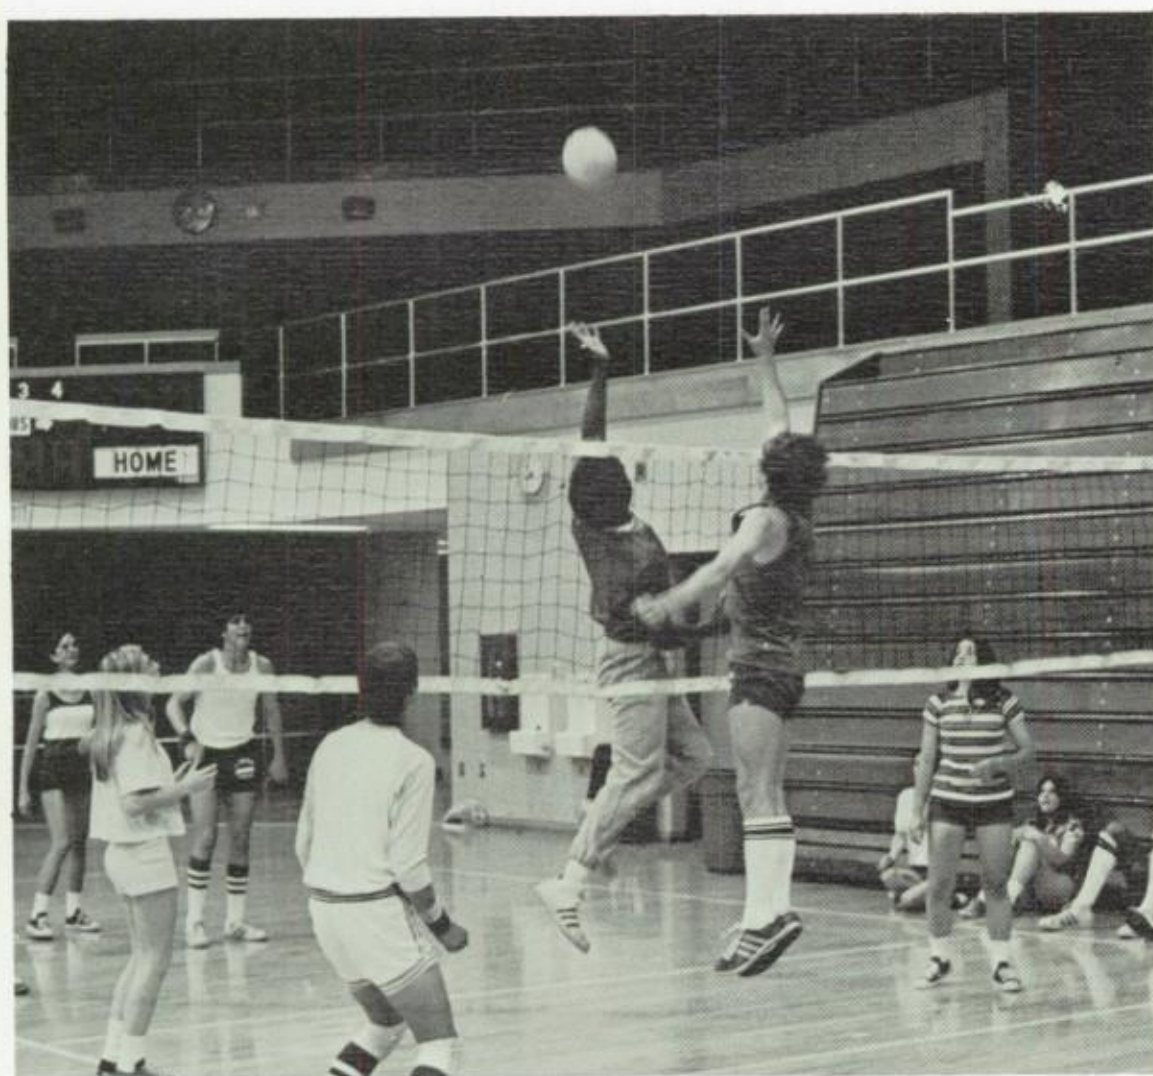

1973-74 INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL CHAMPIONS: ROW 1: George Hart, Jerry Zike, Mike Combs, Coach John Riekers. ROW 2: John Franklin, Tim Marshall, Butch Bannister, Roger Teipen.

Sixteen teams competed for the 1973-74 Intramural Basketball championship from the December 6 practice games through the March 4 tourney. When the semi-final round of the tourney started, the four teams still in competition were the Spurs, Royals, Knicks, and Pistons. The final game saw the Knicks take on the Royals with the Knicks edging past the Royals 58-56 on a last second desperation shot. High scorer for the season was Roger Teipen of the Knicks. Roger was also high scorer for the championship game with 19 points.

Giraffes Capture Mixed Volleyball Championship

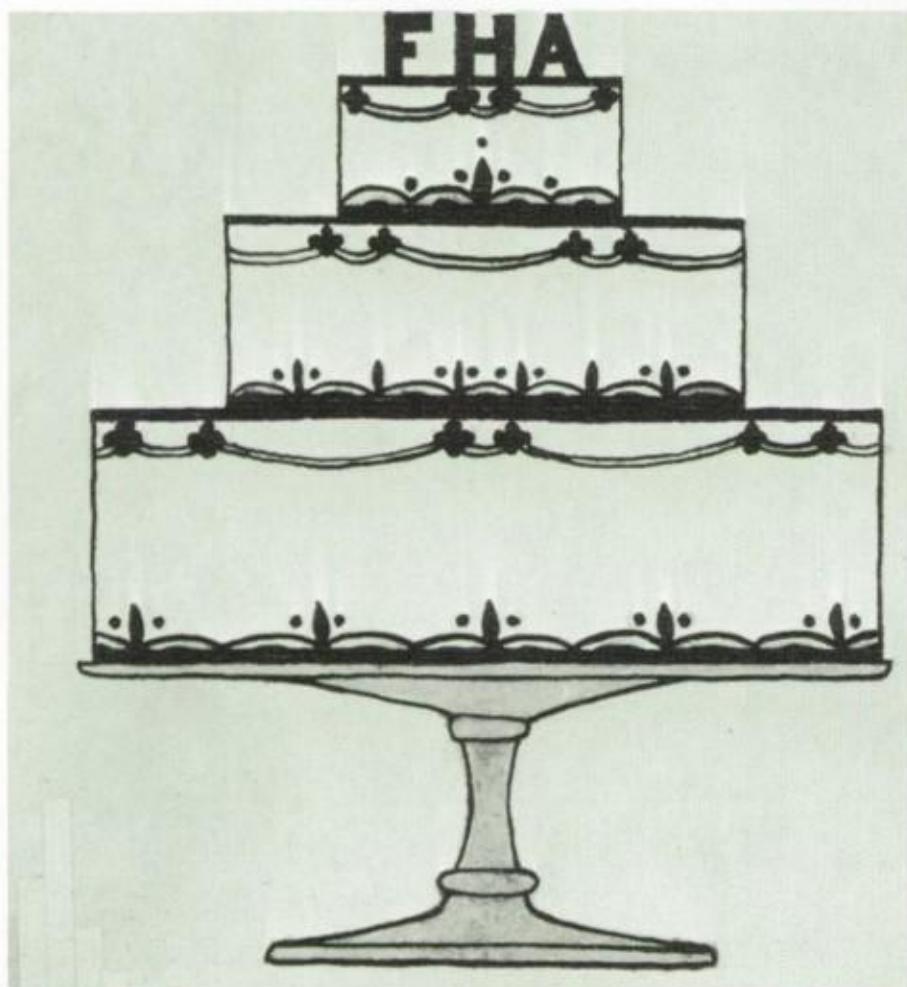

This year, as in the past three years, mixed intramural volleyball was organized by the Athletic Department in March. Both boys and girls were given the opportunity to form their own teams and choose their captains. In 1973-74, teams were given a new look by classifying them under animal names. Games were scheduled on Mondays and Thursdays, with the championship match falling on the first Monday in May. The Giraffes, captained by Kevin Riordan, became the 1974 Intramural Volleyball Champs on that evening.

The main goal of the Future Homemakers of America is to help individuals improve personal, family, and community living. With the completion of a busy year which included regular meetings, an initiation, a bake sale, and a Christmas party for the Sunshine School students, these FHA'ers had a lot of fun accomplishing that goal in 1973-74.

FFA

The purpose of the 1973-74 Future Farmers of America was to develop leadership through an action program. The FFA'ers at SHS carried on many worthwhile projects throughout the school year that benefited both the school and the community: during the football season, the club members operated the concession stands; later on in the year, garden seeds were sold; to aid the surrounding community, the FFA'ers sold rat poison and instructed customers in its proper use; they also conducted a farm community safety program. During National FFA Week, the Future Farmers celebrated by treating the faculty to cherry delight and coffee. Other highlights of the school year were a hayride in October, a skating party with the FFA in November, and field trips to the National Farm Machinery Show in Louisville and the Farm Progress Show in Lebanon, Indiana. In '73-74, the Future Farmers of America surely lived up to their motto: "Doing to Learn, Learning to Do; Earning to Live, Living to Serve."

"Owl" Staff

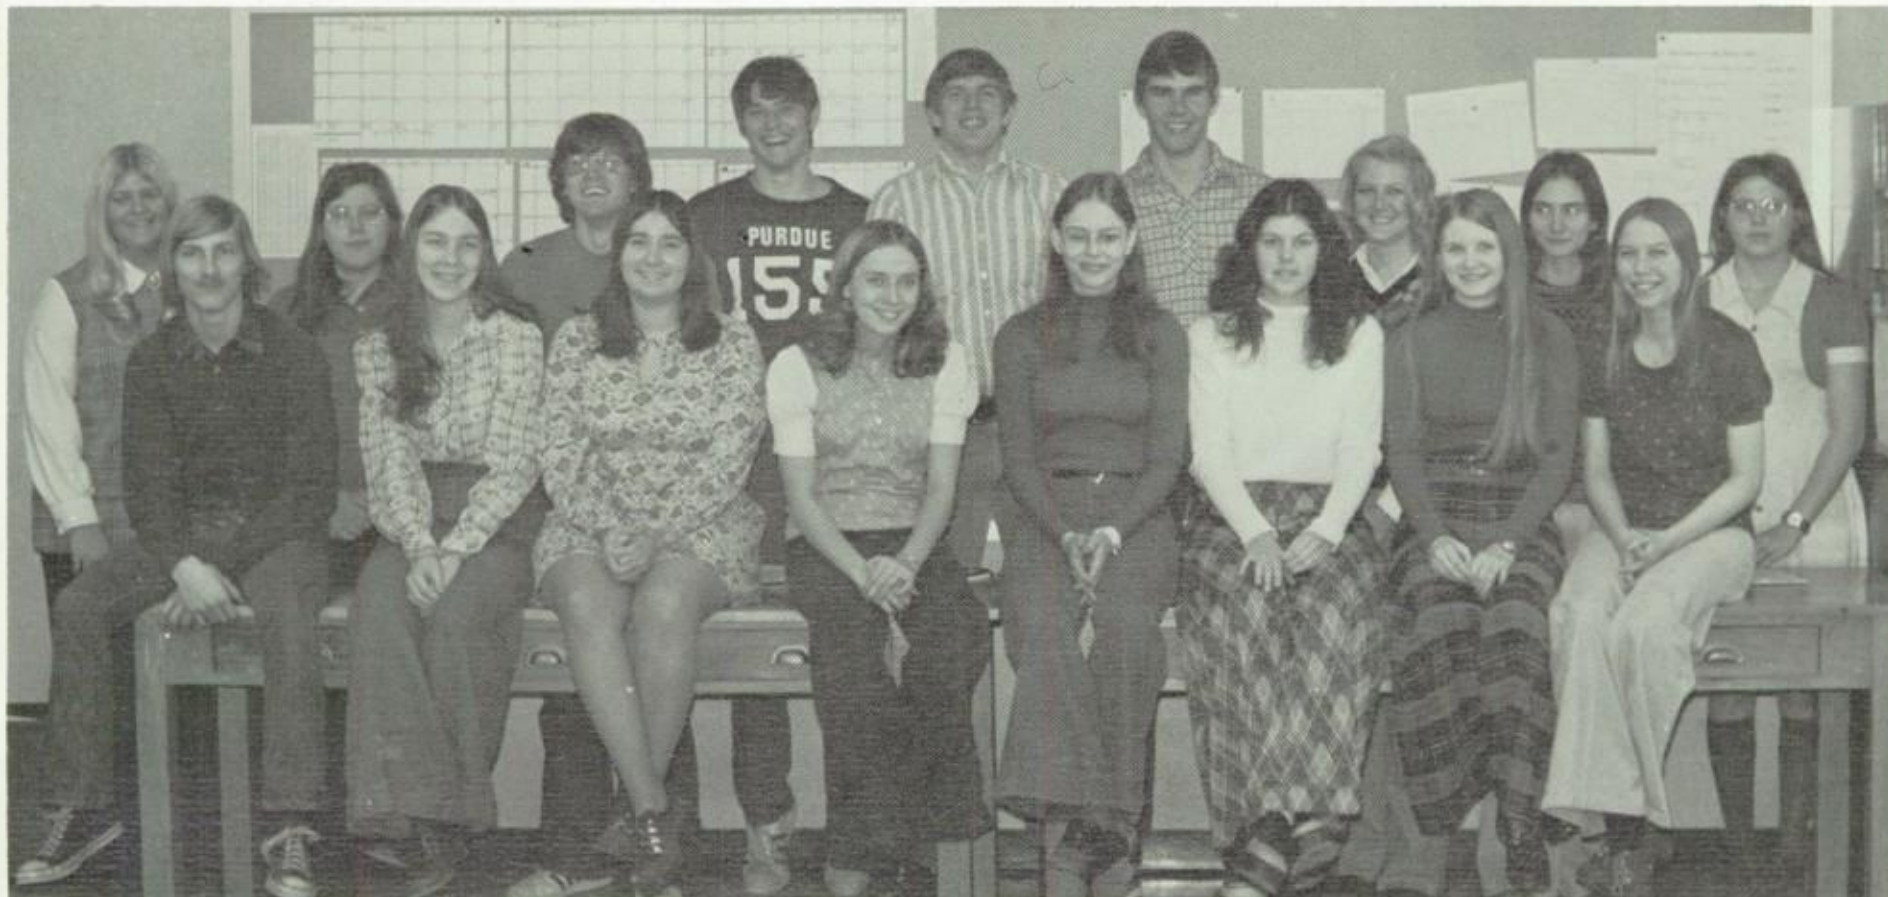

The Seymour "Owl" was responsible for keeping the students of SHS aware of various coming events at school as well as informing them of the accomplishments of fellow students and assorted community activities. All of the staff members — including typists, photographers, artists, editors, and reporters — worked together in an effort to put out the twenty-eight issues during the school year. There were two staffs, each publishing an issue every other week. The first-period journalism class produced the "odd week" issues, while the second period journalism class put out the "even week" issues of the "Owl." Mr. Rohrer was the staffs' advisor; he was aided throughout the year by the editors-in-chief, Becky Davis and Rose Galloway.

French Club

The French Club had a hectic year getting itself organized under a new sponsor, Miss Miller, who came to SHS to replace Mrs. Shields, who had retired. With the help of returning president Jill Robertson, Miss Miller helped everything run smoothly at the meetings, gave fresh ideas for future activities, and sent a delegation of members to the French Festival in Lafayette.

SPQR translates into "the Senate of the Roman people." SPQR was created to give members a more than thorough knowledge of Roman life and to carry on the ideas of this ancient civilization. In 1973-74, the club had a picnic at the Forestry in the fall; entered a float, "A Roman Christmas," in the local Christmas parade; sent delegates to the Indiana Junior Classical League Convention at I.U.; and hosted their annual Roman Banquet in the spring. For the second straight year, SPQR challenged German-language volleyball students to a volleyball match, but lost after a fierce struggle. For the first time, at Honor Day, the club gave a scholarship to an outstanding senior; 1974's first recipient was Georgia Sandefur.

Spanish Clubs

Seymour High School witnessed another of many changes in 1973-74 when the Spanish Club was divided into two groups. Instead of having one large club as it had been in former years, the club split into two smaller groups, each acting independently of the other. Spanish Club I was made up of students taking first-year Spanish and was sponsored by Mrs. Ralston, while Spanish Club II accepted students who had taken two or more years of Spanish. The latter club was sponsored by Mr. Geuder.

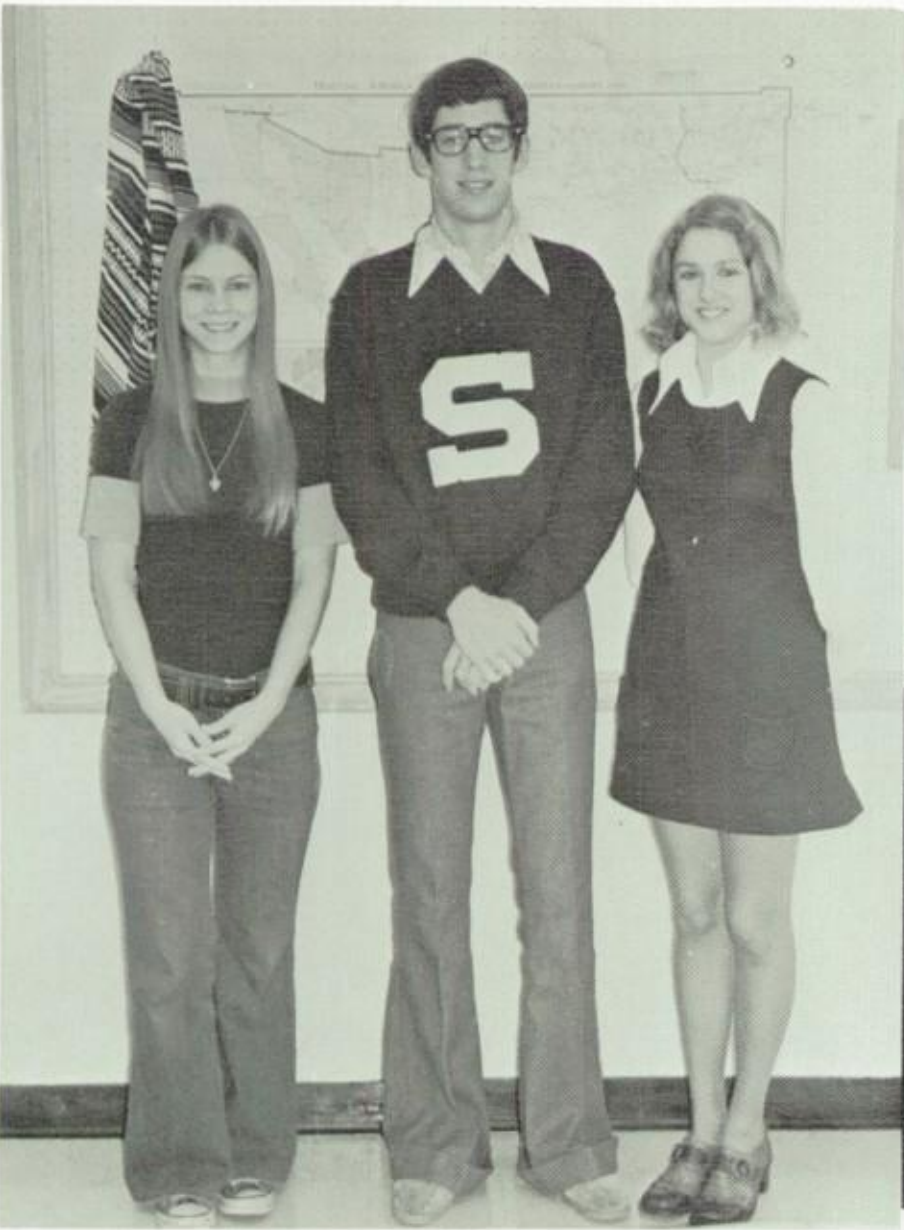

The two clubs enjoyed many Spanish-oriented activities during the club meetings held throughout the school year, with the highlight being a meal at a Mexican restaurant in the spring.

Advanced Choir

The Advanced Choir was really kept on the move during the 1973-74 school year. The chorus started the year off by presenting the Broadway musical, "The Sound of Music." As always, the play was presented before packed houses. Next the choir put on their annual Christmas Concert which was highlighted by the production of the opera, "Amahl and the Night Visitors." In March the Advanced Choir presented their spring musical, "Brigadoon," which was as equally successful as their fall musical. The choir finished the remainder of the school year with such activities as presenting a Senior Concert and singing at the Commencelaureate ceremonies in May.

Girls' Choir

The Girls' Choir consists of 71 exuberant girls. Through a lot of hard work and patience, the girls combined voices for an excellent performance in the annual SHS Christmas Concert. In the spring of '74, the girls again pooled all their musical talents in the Honors Concert.

CONCERT CHOIR

With 18 boys and 50 girls, the Concert Choir is another important group in the choral department. The group first displayed their musical talents when they sang in the Christmas Concert. Next, they were called on to sing at the annual Mid-year Graduation ceremonies. Later in the school year, they performed once more at the choirs' Honors Concert. Through these presentations and long hours of work in class, these students were able to gain a knowledge of and an appreciation of good music.

Swing Choir

During the 1973-74 school year, one organization was very active month in and month out — the Swing Choir. Picked by audition from the Advanced Choir membership, these young people performed at school and civic functions throughout the school year. In '73-74, they sang at Oktoberfest, various civic clubs and church organizations, and local nursing homes. Although still a relatively new off-shoot of the SHS Choral Department, through their many outstanding performances, the group's reputation has grown to be one of the best.

To back all the OWL athletic teams was the goal of the 175-200 members of the Girls' Pep Club. In the fall, officers and council members were elected, and soon, work was under way to produce signs, hoops, and all-around spirit for the sports events. Between the football and basketball seasons, the council members and officers met several times to choose new outfits. By the time the first basketball game rolled around, the girls were sporting new purple smocks, worn with white blouses, slacks, and purple derbies. Under the direction of the cheerleaders, the Pep Club voiced their support during all kinds of weather at track meets, tennis matches, wrestling and swim meets, and football, basketball, and baseball games.

The 1973-74 Lettermen's Club members, sporting new orange and blue shirts, continued their sale of the book, "The History of Seymour High School Sports." As in past years, between football and basketball seasons, the club again conducted the annual sale of schedule pens.

The motto of the club, to create and maintain a high regard for the athletic awards, scholarships, and sportsmanship, was certainly lived up to this year. In the spring, the young men volunteered to participate in the March of Dimes Walk-a-Thon. Later in May, on Honor Day, Mark Aikman was the first letterman to receive the $100 scholarship, which would become an annual award. Dave Earley, a senior letterman, was named the outstanding athlete at the spring All-Sports Banquet.

GAA, the Girls' Athletic Association, was formed to give all girls interested in athletics a chance to participate in different sports, have some fun with others, get some exercise, and earn awards for their efforts. Throughout the 1973-74 school year, these SHS sports-minded girls were active in volleyball, basketball, speedball, flag football, gymnastics, and bowling. In addition many volunteer GAA members helped the boys' sports program by keeping time at boys' swim meets and working at track meets. In the spring, the GAA held its annual Mother-Daughter Banquet where seven seniors were presented with coveted plaques for their GAA achievements and many other underclassmen were also presented with awards.

Unlike all other SHS clubs, the Photo Club is not an off-shoot of some subject in the curriculum, nor is it a purely social club either; it simply is a club formed years ago for Seymour High students who have more than an active interest in photography.

In 1973-74, the club witnessed demonstrations on how to develop negatives and print pictures. They also heard guest speakers like Mr. David McFall at club meetings on such subjects as portrait photo techniques, the variety of cameras, and press photography. During most of the second semester, many club members were busy entering their own photos in an intra-club photography contest.

BUSINESS CLUB

The goal of SHS's Business Club is to improve the efficiency of office work for those who are preparing for a career in a clerical field. During the school-time club meetings, a variety of Seymour business people were invited to speak to the members about various aspects of the business world. During after-school hours, interested members made a number of field trips to places like Groub's, Weyerhaeuser's and the Telephone Company to witness their business force firsthand.

BUSINESS CLUB OFFICERS: Karen Russell, president; Sharon Koop, vice-president; Julie Glasson, secretary-treasurer.

An interest in art is the only requirement for membership in Seymour High's Art Club. During Open House in October, members of the club appeared in the art room to demonstrate various phases of art to Open House visitors. In May, on Honor Day, Mr. Hunterman presented the "Art Spark" Awards to those members who had shown "sparks" of talent in the field of art, either as a career or a hobby.

The Science Club is an opportunity for juniors and seniors taking physics or chemistry to pursue science further than their daily classroom work with Mr. Bell and Mr. Chastain, the sponsors. In 1973-74, the club subscribed to a magazine, saw science-related films, and heard guest speakers, including James Moritz, a former SHS student and club member, now a nuclear scientist.

1973-74 was the first year that there was a girls' auto mechanics class; therefore, girls were admitted as members to the Industrial Arts Club for the first time. In the fall, members collected food to make Thanksgiving baskets for the needy; after the April 3 tornadoes, members voted to donate club dues to the local Red Cross for tornado victims.

The Seymour High School Dramatics Club, under the direction of Mr. Brantley Blythe and Mrs. Deborah Ralston, brought the curtain down on a successful club year in 1973-74. To start off, on December 15, members of the club skillfully presented the popular Broadway thriller, "Bad Seed," as the club's annual play. Other interested members also received chances to display their acting ability in one-act skits given at regular club meetings. In addition, the group took a trip to Actors' Theater in Louisville to see a professional presentation of "Rendezvous."

Troupe 3053 of the International Thespian Society is one of the younger clubs at SHS; it is dedicated to the advancement and improvement of the dramatic arts at Seymour High School. Each year the Troupe invites members of the Dramatics Club or dramatics class who have earned points in drama work or backstage work or who have been recommended by the Troupe's sponsors to join the Society. At Honor Day each spring, trophies for "Best Actress" and "Best Actor" are sponsored by the Troupe.

These students did most anything from delivering daily bulletins and attendance sheets to operating stage lights. In 1973-74, the tasks the assistants performed might have seemed trivial to the outsider, but the members of the faculty realized that the student assistants were necessary to make each day a success.

Tri-Hi-Y

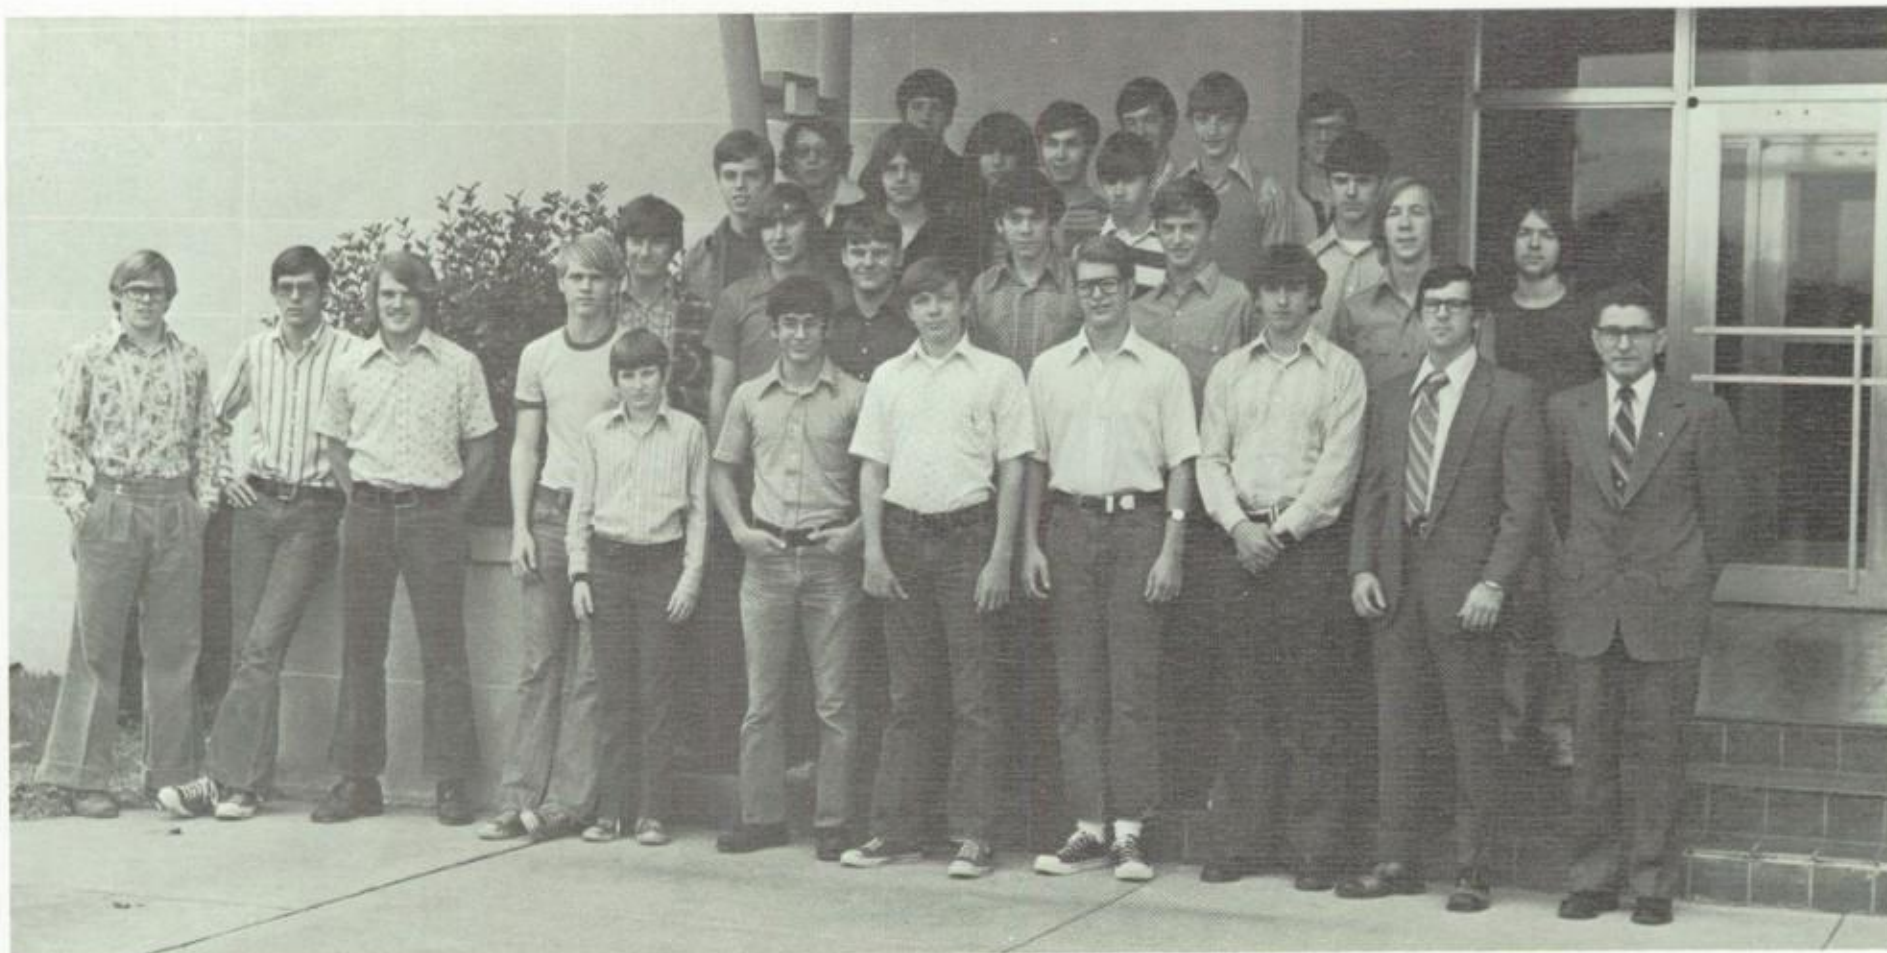

The goals of the 1974 Tri-Hi-Y Club were to unite members in a spirit of friendship and to promote growth in Christian character. These goals were accomplished when the group started off the new year by a candlelight initiation ceremony of new members. They continued their "spirit of friendliness" when they made tray favors at Thanksgiving and Easter for the nursing homes and the Pediatrics Ward at the hospital. A spring picnic was held at Gaiser Park, where the club played softball and enjoyed light refreshments.

Each year, the Hi-Y at SHS strives to live up to their motto: "Clean speech, clean sports, clean living." Under the guidance of Mr. Unger and Mr. Reagin, in 1973-74 the boys purchased T-shirts with the club emblem silk-screened on them and voluntarily worked uptown to help clean up the debris after the city's large Oktoberfest celebration.

The purpose of the Future Teachers of America was to explore the field of education in 1973-74. This organization definitely accomplished this purpose through many projects and observances.

During National Education Week, October 22 through 26, the FTA held a party honoring the faculty at SHS; during Open House the same week, the club members registered guests and served as guides; in December, club members worked together to enter a float in the Christmas Parade; in February, the annual Book Fair was held in Room 303.

One of the annual highlights of FTA was the tutoring program in the local grade schools. This program — open to senior members only — gave students who were definitely considering a teaching career the opportunity to get first-hand experience in the classroom.

FTA OFFICERS: Susan Mitchell, second-semester vice-president; Debbie Copple, secretary-treasurer; Jayne Slade, first-semester vice-president; Dana Thompson, president.

Mat Maids

The Mat Maids are a group of girls who volunteer to assist the Wrestling team. After several practice-runs in which the girls learned the intricacies of scoring and the operation of the electric clocks, they were qualified to help at all home meets. The girls timed the matches, kept score, announced the winners, and served as runners to keep the meets running smoothly. The girls' efforts were appreciated by the team and coaches during the entire season.

The Diamondettes were in their second year of existence in 1973-74. The girls, like wrestling's Mat Maids, are interested in serving the varsity, reserve and freshmen baseball programs at SHS. The ten girls, outfitted in new silk-screened T-shirts, ran the concession stand, picked up bats, chased foul balls, and announced line-ups and inning-by-inning summaries over the public address system.

Patriot Staff

The 1974 seventeen-member PATRIOT staff was chosen on Honor Day last year. Working under the advisement of Mr. John Lewis, the staff sold booster ads all summer to earn money for the publication of the book. Early in the fall, they learned to lay out pages, crop pictures, write headlines and copy, and identify faces. The staff held four sales periods during noon hours in which students had opportunities to purchase the yearbooks. A sale of 400 candid pictures was held in May for those pictures for which there was not enough space. The staff worked into the summer to finish the book for its August distribution.

The 1973-74 Student Council had a busy and rewarding year at SHS. Led by president Tom Easterday and under the guidance of Mr. Miller, this group was the underlying reason for such changes in our school as the removal of the "no chewing gum" and "restricted students" rules, plus the initiation of new guidelines for attending the Prom. And, in addition to being the governing body of our school, the Student Council also sponsored the queens' elections for Homecoming and the Seymour Invitational, served as guides for eighth-grade orientation and the North Central Association evaluation committee, hosted College Night, and built a float for Seymour's annual Christmas Parade.

All in all, this hard-working group of individuals formed together to make a team SHS proudly presented as its representatives in school and civic activities.

Marching Owls

During the hot sultry days of early August, 140 bandmen under the direction of Mr. Steve McGrew gathered for their nightly workouts. All of these hot summer drills led to the regular busy season of football pre-game shows and half-time shows. In addition, the Marching Owls performed in the V-J Day parade, the Halloween Parade, and the Christmas Parade. To top off a season of hard work, they traveled to Hanover to play in that college's pre-game and half-time Homecoming programs.

Dept.

DRUM MAJORS: Tony Calrk, senior drum major; Jerry Kuehn, sophomore drum major; Chris Klaes, junior drum major.

After marching season and auditions for Mr. McGrew, the Marching Owls split into two separate bands — Concert and Symphonic. Besides playing in the Winter, Pops, and Spring Concerts, both bands competed in a statewide contest and, as usual, brought home firsts. As an added bonus, the Symphonic Band also toured several high schools and college campuses, performing in convocations for them.

The Campus Owls and German Band, offshoots of the Symphonic Band, completed a hectic schedule of their own this year by playing in the numerous concerts at school and making appearances at many clubs throughout Seymour.

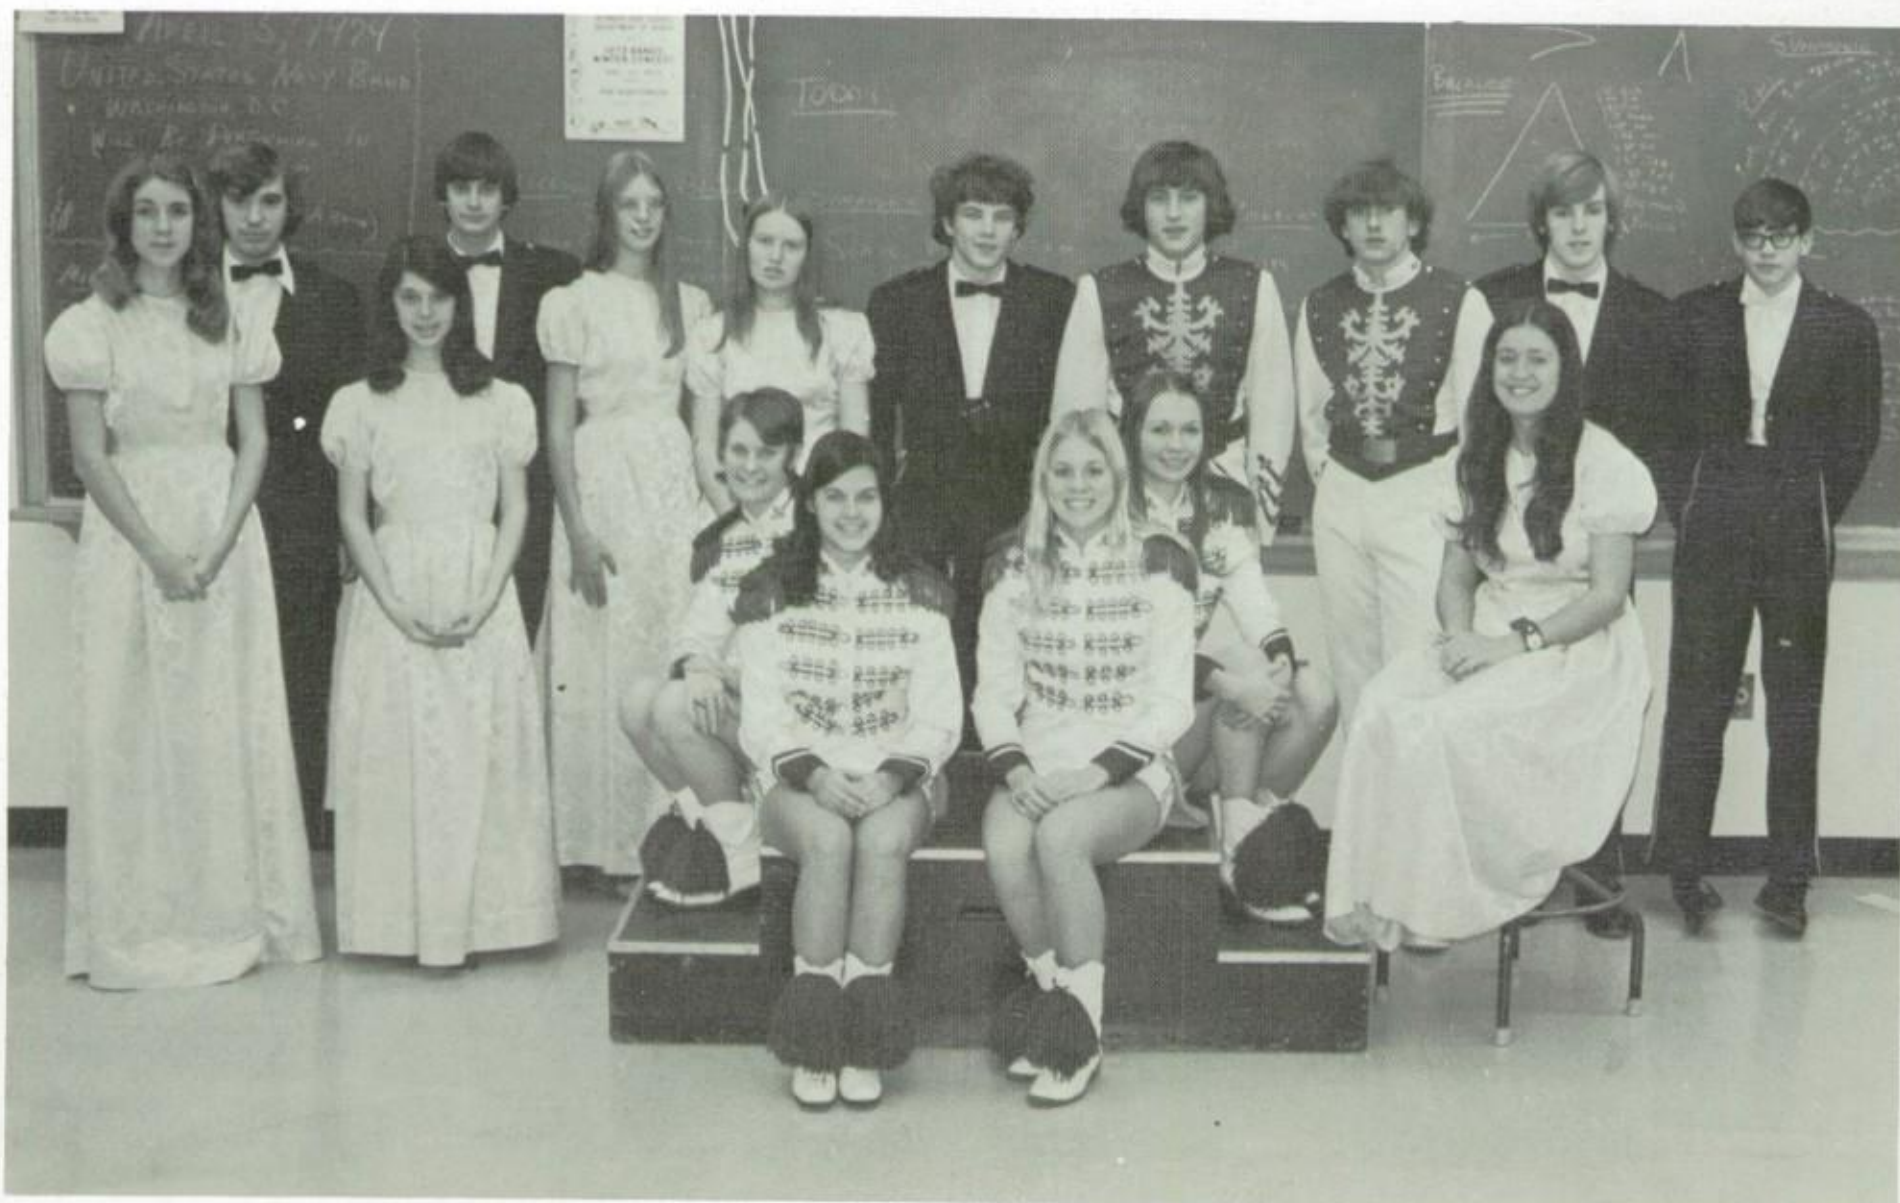

The Pep Band, another member of the Band Department, consisted entirely of dedicated volunteers, who worked hard to add a little gusto to the basketball games and pep sessions.

As we reflect upon the 1973-1974 school year, many events crowd into our memories. Report cards ... pep sessions ... snowstorms ... Honor Day ... schoolbuses ... tornadoes ... the Prom ... convocations ... math ... The Sound of Music ... the heart-breaking loss to Jeffersonville in the Regional Commencealaureate — each of these is fused together to make this a year of accomplishments and failures, victories and defeats. The Patriot Staff has made an effort throughout this book to record the events and activities of the 1973-1974 school year as they affected us. Although none of us can be sure what the future holds in store as we reminisce over the past year, we know that we may never pass this way again.

Julie,

I've known you a hell of a long time, and you're going to be going to college.

I hope you won't forget me since I'm not going to college. hope I see you in the future.
Lots of Luck.

David Zandt

Julie,

As David said, but just the opposite "I" have not ~~known~~ known you very long. I still remember your parties. When are you going to have another one?

Good luck this year and I know we'll have the best "Patriot" ever!

A friend,
Cathy Ray

Eleven long years and here we finally are! SENIORS!! We have had a lot of fun these past years but as everyone knows, this is going to be our best. Take it easy this year and I hope you stay No. 1. Have fun and I hope to see you at all of the parties coming up.

Good Luck always,
Becky Hunsucker

Julie,
Well, we've only got one class together this year, but we've got a special one all going to take it up in Journalism. We've got a whole year of parties this year, so be prepared (if you know what I mean). One of those days we'll have to sit back in your news car. Good Luck with your graduation speech everything else.

"F" DuDum

I just love being the first to write on a page! Well, this is our last year. I've known you ever since kindergarten when we were best friends. I haven't seen you much in the last few years but I hope we can have a good senior year! Good luck in studios and stay #1! Come alive in '75!
Janet Swain

Julie,
Well, we finally made it! I can't believe we're all seniors! You've been a great friend ever since Junior High and we've all had some really great times. Have fun this year going to all the parties and keep up your fantastic grades (I know you will!) Stay as sweet and smart as you are always. Love
Jane Miller

Julie
 It's hard to believe we've finally made it "Seniors"!
 Thinking back across the yrs. - we've had lots of fun. The Semi-State one yr., then last yr. & last summer, going to Cincinnati with your parents (our luck - with the Black community going on), some of the parties. Let's hope this yr.
 will be filled with loads of fun, too. We'll have to get together some time & make some fun. O.K.? When & if you've decided where you're going to college - good luck & you'll have to visit me at Purdue.
 Don't work too hard this yr.

Love,
 Jan

Julie,
 Good luck
 and have a lot of fun in the coming year
 Love
 Joe Elkins

To an old friend once grade school. It's been great knowing you. We've made it from Miss Battlett to Mr. Fisher and I can't believe it. I'm sure you'll never forget our parties, working on the poem, and all that good stuff. Keep that brain working and I know you'll go far. friend
